sparingly. Hi, Eloise Williams, so Dot left you all the news from home."

"What a combination! PEGGY Weed with Reeves' happy-go-lucky nature and PEGGY Ann with her healthy lungs!"

"Well, if this doesn't top it! Mary Clapp might use the Turner angelic smile, but there will be a row when those girls from Florida learn that Margaret left the standard only to Joyce Juniper."

"Of course, there are a few valuable possessions that the girls are parting with only because of an overdeveloped sense of generosity. To the lucky individuals who are fortunate enough to get these, Heggie Pills wills her much treasured hat, and one-half the Senior Class their positions on the Dean's list on the bulletin board."

"Yes, and when the Senior Class left to the Junior Class its spirit of cooperation and best wishes for the coming year, they found it very hard to say, GOODBYE!!!

HIGH SCHOOL PROPHECY

She has a lovely home on the Battery where she resides with the proverbial parrot, cat, and her cup of tea every afternoon.

And now for Margaret Ray Harvison Smith. She has certainly proved a credit to her class. She is the charming wife of a senator from N. C. At present she and her family are off on their private yacht for an extended Mediterranean cruise.

And so, Marko has spoken, and time only will prove the wisdom of his words.

"Eleanor Lewis, Emily Drennan, and Georgia Langley were back at the greatly enlarged Montreat College. The art of dietetics engaged them, and a Montreat figure was then a trim one due to their careful suppression of calories.

"Willie Mae Reeves did not escape a domestic fate either. She directed a large farm and 'trucked' the goods to market. "Annabelle Brown and her Mortimer have formed the comedy team that gave Burns and Allen a black eye. All of America was demanding more wit done up Brown.

"Carolyn Fishburne was the leading lady of a new play that had just opened on Broadway and which was called 'The Musician' by Clare O'Net. In her supporting cast were Margaret Turner, Laura Branham, Louise Parish, Dot Sloane, Thelma Dyson, Eleanor Barnett, and Julia Jean Harrison. Jessie Carmichael played the part of a harpy, and Ruby Ellen Ferguson did a solo dance between the acts.

"Mary Andrews and Mildred Camden grew up and married a bank director and sheriff respectively, but the director didn't direct, nor did the sheriff lay down the law.

"Cato was married and was teaching a kindergarten by the methods of Rousseau, which she learned in her History of Ed. days.

"Vera Stroup and Ida Lee Martin were floating through the air with the greatest of ease as they found it easy to become air hostesses due to their short height.

"Marietta McFall had trained her already lovely voice and was singing 'Waken, Waken, Day is Dawning' even succeeded in rousing me from this hilarious dream".
