

THE MITCHELL TRIP

On Monday, October 10, four trucks were brought to Montreat College to take the girls on their annual trip to Mt. Mitchell. They left the campus about 9:15, and arrived at Camp Alice at noon.

The chaperones, Misses Hoyt, Cooper, Henderlite, Russell, and Smith, took their respective groups on the hike to the top of Mitchell. Many pictures were taken of the beautiful scenery there.

When the hikers returned to Camp Alice, lunch was served and cooked over open fires. This outdoor cooking was a new, but delightful experience for many.

On the way back to the College, the trucks stopped at the State Game Refuge, only to discover that all the wild game had been moved. We also stopped at a place where we could see Andrews' Geysers.

At 5:30 a weary, but happy group of girls returned to the College. --M. S. and N. A.

JOKES

When a professor in College asks a question these are the answers he will receive.

Freshman--"I don't know".

Sophomore--"I'm not prepared".

Junior--"I don't remember".

Senior--"I don't believe I can add any further constructive ideas to what has already been said".

Hassie: "I'm glad I wasn't born in Paris".

Miss McElroy: "Why not?"

Hassis: "I simply can't learn French".

Seniors Prayer

Hasten, yes, hasten,
Oh, Time, on thy flight-
Make the bell ring
Before I recite.

Miss Smith: We will now name some of the lower species of animals starting with Mary Johnson.

Tyree and Joy were arguing vigorously in Home Ec. class, when Joy laughed loudly.

"Joy you're the dumbest person I've ever seen", said Tyree -- "Now girls, you forgot I'm in the room", said Miss Milos.

Alice Davis: "If I said I was beautiful, what tense would that be?"
Frances Quarterman: "Pretense, kid, pretense".

Remember well and keep in mind
A real good joke is hard to find-
And if we've found a joke that's new

Don't get mad if it's on you.

--P. W.

Y. P. C.

The purpose of the Y. P. C. is to develop the spiritual life and train for Christian leadership through a four-fold program of worship, instruction, recreation, and service. In order to accomplish this work the Y. P. C. holds weekly meetings on Sunday evenings in Gaither Hall, sponsors Prayer Groups, a Life-Service Group, and tries in every way to be of real help to the student body. ---H. H.

WELCOME

The Dialette Staff welcomes the new Faculty members: Misses Rachel Henderlite, Frances Russell, Marie Burton, Mary Williams, and Mrs. Beattie.
