READ THE BULLETIN BOARD

The Student Cabinet has a suggestion to give to every student and faculty member in the school. Read the bulletin board. Have you noticed that section of the bulletin board reserved for official announcements? We students are held responsible for those announcements, so it is up to us to "get the bulletin board habit." A glance at the bulletin board on our way to and from classes will keep us posted on anything new, and might keep us from missing an important meeting. So remember, read the bulletin board.

DEMERITS

We have heard quite a bit of grumbling lately about demerits. None of us likes to get a demerit, and if we act sincerely and sensibly, we need not get any. Then let us look at the other side of the question. The monitors and other people in authority dislike giving demerits too. They would much rather have everyone on first class and entitled to all privileges. But if we have gotten a demerit, it is best just to mark it down to experience and be more careful the next time. Grumbling and fussing about it is not sportsmanlike and will not help at all. After all, rules here at Montreat are not very hard to keep. Try it and see.

One important rule we must remember is "Respect the Study Sign." When we hang a study sign on our door, it means we do not want any visitors, not even our best friend. But then it is up to us to hang up our Study Sign only when we really want to study. If we want to make the Study Sign effective this year we must all cooperate in respecting it.
