

SPORTS BIRTHDAYS

Soccer has now become a thing of the past and for the last month girls have been trooping down to Anderson chapel for indoor sports. The chapel walls have rung with our shouts and laughter every afternoon as we learned new games and improved our skill in others.

Traditional American checkers was played off in the best of style, complete kibitzers and all. After many long games and several ties, the climax came when Lois Moore defeated Betty Gene Alley in the final game.

Chinese checkers is the oriental cousin of American checkers (or is it the marble version?) This is one everybody likes and Irene Dillingham and Ruth Mason played up till the finals and Irene won the last game.

Parcheesi is called the "Royal Game of India" and was royally won by Emmy Lcu Hughes up through her last game with Betty Collins.

Table tennis is our old friend pingpong. It was fun for everyone and in the final game Betty Leland defeated Marjorie Jordan.

Ring tennis is called coits aboard ships where voyagers often find the canvas board tossed overboard. No such difficulty was found however, when Lois Moore defeated Barbara Alward.

Caroms was a new game to a good many and the newcomers were surprised to find how quickly sore fingers developed. In the final game, Wynelle Pope won over Elsie Cooper.

Last but not least is our old friend horse shoes. Some found the rubber shoes a new experience, and in the last game Pat Dave defeated Kitty Hepler.

So Merry Christmas to you all, but be sure to come back prepared for basketball.

"Betty Bott bought a bit of butter.
Said she, "This butter's bitter.
If I put it in my batter
It will make my batter bitter."
So Betty Botta bought a bit of better butter
To make her bitter batter better."
