

A SPECIAL THANK YOU TO THOSE SPECIAL PEOPLE OUTSIDE OF THE CLASSROOM FROM THE ALETHEIA!

"No way to operate the Development Office without our fine student workers. The best part of my work is the association with my student workers" -Ruby Carson
Development Secretary

"The students overall were very finely dressed and neatly kept. . .The baseball team in particular was a fine looking group of young men" -Teresa Price
Business Office

"You meet so many out here and find yourself getting attached to them. Then when they leave, it's kind of like losing your own kids" -Debbie Wilson
Receptionist

"The students somehow can make me feel old but they also make me feel young all in the same day." -Pat Turpin
Development

"Looking back this year, the creativity and the imagination of the Student Activity Committee was super. The transformation of the snack bar into the Candlelight Cafe stands out. . .I'm greatly looking forward to Jr. and Sr. leadership in the future." -Mrs. A.

THANK YOU!

"Exciting! Everything has been different. There has always been an added twist. . .A year of fun-filled surprises." -Lou Johnson
Resident Director

"I'm very proud of the first Junior Class. This year students have been very considerate. I greatly appreciate that" -Beth Bartlett
Financial Aid

"As for the students, well, some I know better than others (due to their frequent visits to the Dean's Office). The students are very special to me. I love them" -Tootie Sullins
Dean of Students Office
