

SCA Reaches Out Toward Campus and Beyond

Shayna R. Siekkinen
Staff Writer

If you're looking for the chance to become involved here at Montreat-Anderson College, the Student Christian Association is the group to join. One of the main goals of SCA is to disciple students and support them in their walk with Christ.

This year, SCA is offering a small group program here on campus. Small groups offer help and support on a personal level through Bible studies, discussions, and activities, and are a great way to become closer to some of your fellow classmates and to meet people who can relate to you and share your interests.

Another way to become involved in SCA is to participate in Vespers every Sunday from 7-8 p.m. Vespers is designed to offer students a neutral place to worship. Marc Duarte, president of the SCA, says he's found that students who attend Vespers find the experience very rewarding.

SCA offers students a variety of projects to become involved in, both on and off campus. One of the best ways to serve God is by serving others. Through SCA's off campus ministry programs many students are called to channel their energy towards helping others. By using you gifts and talents to reach out to others you will benefit both emotionally and spiritually, and others will profit as well.

"Children awaken your own sense of self when you see them hurting, struggling, testing; when you watch their eyes and listen to their hearts." (Kathleen Crilly) SCA challenges students to reach out to underprivileged children ranging from age 5 to age 18 at the Presbyterian Children's Home through their Big Brother/Big Sister program. Another similar program is also offered that involves dealing with troubled youth at the Juvenile Detention Center.

Look around. There are so many people who need what we can offer. There are so many people around this area who need people to minister to them. The Black Mountain Center, a facility for physically, emotionally, and mentally handicapped people is in need of people to visit and share some of their time. SCA also encourages students to minister to people in a unique way by joining "Habitat for Humanity," an organization that provides low income housing.

Through positive action we can create a world where people face life's challenges with God's purpose and the good of others as their motivation and where God is really number one! Reach out and meet the challenge! For more information on any of the programs mentioned above, contact SCA president, Marc Duarte.

Night Light

Yet those who wait for the Lord Will gain new strength;
They will mount up with wings like eagles,
They will run and not get tired,
They will walk and not get weary.

--Isaiah 40:31

Quotables

Doubt is a pain too lonely to know that faith is his twin brother.

--Kahlil Gibran

Correction:

The byline of the article "Let's Go Huddling" should have read Pamela Crane.

The Aletheia Weekly

Published weekly by the Student Christian Association Committee of Montreat-Anderson College, Montreat, N.C. 28757. Advertising rates are available upon request.
Student Activities Chairman:  Bob Graham
Vice Chairman: Laura Shultz
Editor: Mark Nell
Acting Editor: Ken Schmidt
Assistant Editor: John Ireland

Circulation 600 Weekly