

Shooting For The Top

By: Sarah Whitecotton
Staff Writer

The Lady Cavs began the season on a winning note by defeating Covenant College 68-58 on November 10 at home.

After the first half, the Lady Cavs went to the locker room leading 30-19. Junior wing Shayna White and freshman guard Shon Snipes put the fastbreak into operation and surprised the other team. During the early second half, the Lady Scots of Covenant came back and covered the 11 point difference and then took a 2 point lead.

The Lady Cavs called a time out, the team settled down. Sophomore guard Alison Swanger shot a 3 pointer that put the Lady Cavs back on top. After matching baskets for several minutes, Gracie Mann, White, Snipes, and Swanger all contributed to the Lady Cavs victory over Covenant.

"We got some good baseline from White, Trish Lewandowski played well defensively, Gracie Mann played good defensively even if she had to hobble around the court," Coach Bostic said. White had an excellent game, contributing 35 points, 10 rebounds, and 7 steals. Snipes also added 15 points, while Swanger followed closely with 10. Lewandowski dominated the boards with 9 rebounds.

"Covenant was the way we wanted to start the season. We have a lot of potential. This game motivated and excited the team," Coach Bostic stated. "The crowd was great. It was great fun-it got the players motivated."

But victory didn't come easily in the second game of the season. The Lady Cavs lost to Milligan College on Tuesday, November 13, 67-89. "We had no enthusiasm, no intensity. It was one of those nights when nothing goes right and everything goes wrong," Coach Bostic stated. "They were a big, aggressive team that wore us out mentally as well as physically."

By the half the Lady Cavs were down 42-24. In the second half the team started playing better and cut the lead to 42-50. The Cavs kept the game at 8 points away, but a technical foul called on the team didn't help the situation. It caused a 5 point turn around. After the foul, the Cavs got the ball back and scored a basket, but then mistakes hit, and Milligan went ahead by 13 points and eventually won the game 67-89.

Although the score may seem negative, there were a few highlights in the game. "Skeet" Bridges played extremely good defensively contributing 6 steals, while Shayna White added 30 pints, 8 rebounds and 3 steals. Senior post Judy Davis had 6 points earned by 3 quick baskets. Shon Shipes added 14 points and 4 rebounds and Gracie Mann, still hobbling added defensively as well with 7 rebounds.

In Memorial

In Memorial To:
Shannon Deweese and
Danny Watts
Died December 3, 1990

"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." --John 3:16

Sometimes the lives of those we know and love are taken away from us. For Shannon Deweese and Danny Watts, former students of Montreat-Anderson College, we would like to say that we will remember you in our hearts and cherish the memories that we hold of you. We are assured that you are indeed in a better place than us, and are given hope by that fact. We will miss you.

Quotables

To his dog, every man is Napoleon; hence the great popularity of dogs.

--Aldous Huxley

It takes your enemy and your friend, working together, to hurt you to the heart: One to slander you, and the other to tell you the news.

--Mark Twain

Night Light

You shalt not take the name of your Lord your God in vain for the Lord will not hold him guiltless who takes His name in vain.

--Exodus 20:7

The Aletheia Weekly

Published weekly by the Student Activities Committee of Montreat-Anderson College, Montreat, N.C. 28757. Advertising rates are available upon request.

Student Activities Chairman and Managing Editor
Editor
Acting Editor
Assistant-Editor

Bob Graham
Mark Neil
Ken Schmidt
John Ireland

Circulation 600 Weekly