

A Message From SCA

By: Marcus Duarte
SCA President

Greetings from the Student Christian Association! I would like to take a moment of your time to fill you in on what the SCA has been doing this year. As you should know, our organizations are established to provide ministry to those in need. Through the leadership of many wonderful and devoted individuals, we have been able to reach out and give our time and lives to many people in the community.

The Presbyterian Children's home in Black Mountain, has received much encouragement and support through the Big Brother/Sister program; The Juvenile Evaluation Center has had a strong group of ladies that go about once a week and spend good, quality time with youth that need role-models as they try to correct their lives. We also have had a group of students that go out to the Black Mountain Center and visit the handicapped.

Another organization that has been going strong is the Habitat for Humanity operation in the area. Through several visits, a few students have spent their time and muscle to provide housing to less privileged families.

On Campus, we have had a great time in our small group meetings. The ministry potential of the individuals on their campus is great if we will take it. And, the Missions staff of the SCA has just finished out their incredible trip to Michigan for the Urbana 1990 conference.

Finally, Vespers has been a real joy and growing time for many who attend. It is nice to have a place that we, as students and faculty, can come together and worship God and learn about His many ways.

Overall, as you can see, the SCA has been and is very active in our community and on our campus. I pray that you have found your place in these special ministry groups. Remember that it is never too late to participate, and without your help, the SCA could never be.

Keep your eyes open to the activities that we have planned for the rest of the year, we would love to see you at as many functions as possible. So for now, that is all! See you in Vespers.

Come one, come all for...

If it's all Greek to you...

Come study the ancient languages with those who will help you apply them to today's contemporary issues.

Our graduates go on to serve in pastoral ministry, counseling, youth ministry, family ministry, urban ministry and a great variety of other Christian vocations, as well as teaching in colleges and seminaries.

We offer eleven MA programs (including Counseling, Youth Ministry, and Christian Education), the Master of Divinity, and the Master of Theology, and we offer competitive financial aid packages.

Call us today to learn more about these programs. You may even want to begin with our Independent Study Program offered by correspondence.
