

Lady Cavs Invade the Bahamas

Christmas vacation was a great experience for the Lady Cavalier basketball team. As all you doughnut and raffle ticket buyers know, the Lady Cavs participated in the Bahamas Invitational in Freeport, Bahamas, along with Virginia Intermont College, Atlanta Bible College, and the Bahamian National team. Our ladies came away with two victories - a 48-44 win over the Bahamian team and a 54-46 victory over Atlanta Bible

The men's basketball team has struggled this season with a 8-18 record. Despite the losses, the Cavaliers have had some strong highlights during the season.

Those highlights include an 84-82 road win over Hiwassee College (nationally ranked at the time). The Cavs won an exciting overtime victory against rival Warren Wilson College to retain the "Little Brown Jug" for the fifth consecutive year. The team also played two Division JV teams visiting the Dean Smith Center in Chapel Hill and the Vines Center at Liberty University.

Steve Holley of Washington, NC has been the Cavs top performer during the season. He averaged 19 points a game and 9 rebounds a game. Steve's best performance of the season was 35 pts. and 15 rebounds vs. Liberty JV, according to Coach Steve McNamara.
