

Challenging Season up Ahead

By Cara Weiss

The upcoming volleyball season looks challenging, but the Montreat Anderson volleyball team is very competitive.

Every one of them puts forth her very best effort in the games. They all trust in Jesus to guide their victories.

They are coached by Darin Chaplain, who is very supportive of them. He encourages them to strive to their fullest potential. Juniors, Traci Haynes and Carrie Luck-savage, feel that Coach Chaplain has been a great asset to the team.

Haynes stated, "We have improved from the very first day of practice... We could not ask for a better coach. He does a great job. He may come down hard on us, but its only to make us better." Luck-savage reiterated, "We really appreciate

New Faculty Add Fresh Energy

By Anna Shimaya

M-AC's new faculty bring added energy along with experience to the campus.

For example, William R. Forstchen (Bill), has accepted the position of assistant professor of history/social studies education. He has a Bachelor's degree in Social Studies Education from Rider College.

Secondly, James L. Buckner, an adjunct professor, will teach a Christian Ministries Course this semester He has a degree from Georgia State University, Psychological studies Institute, and Columbia Bible Seminary.

Next, David E. Walters assumed the position of Director of Admissions the first of July. He received a degree from Montreat-Anderson, Florida State University, and Central Michigan University. Also, he was an assistant professor at Wake Forest University from 1978 to 1982; and has been a director of U.S. Army recruiting since 1990.

Peggy Leis, a 1988 graduate of M-AC, is the new director of Alumni and Parent Relations.

Paula Johnson, also a graduate of M-AC, is Resident director of M-A hall and Intramurals coordinator. Paula says, "... It's easy to get know new members." Paula has previously been a recreation therapist at Southmountain children's home in Nebo, NC.

Cary Willcox, is Associate for Student Activities. Also, he is the Resident Director of Davis hall.

Coach Chaplain. He puts a lot of effort and time into it."

The rest of the team are Freshmen: Gail Collingsworth, Stephanie Cone, Jennifer Douthit, Lori Elliot, Sabrina Rogers, and

Christi Waddell, who for the most part all have scholarships, and senior,

Becky Brown.

Several games have been played already this year. While in a tournament, M-AC won a match against Clinch Valley, however they were defeated against Mars Hill and Tusculum.

Soccer Team Practices Fancy Footwork

By Marcy Buckner

Sweat drips as they run and kick on the field. No, not horses, they are the Montreat soccer team!

Largely composed of freshmen, the young team is led by a new coach. Steve Schutt has replaced former coach, Steve Barrett, who is now living in Texas. Barrett is currently teaching and coaching at Letourneau University.

Schutt graduated from Liberty University with a Bachelor's degree in communications. He and his wife, Karen, have been married a year. Schutt Steven Schutt has already been working since July as the new soccer coach and admissions counselor. He came from a coaching position with Jefferson Forest High School in Forest, VA.

Brad Daniel, David Parks, Wilma Gray, and Hicks Anderson are not new, they are returnees to campus this fall. Daniel returns to his former position in the Natural Science Division after a year's leave of absence.. Parks teaches one Bible course, since he has agreed to help fill the void left by Ron Brunson. Gray teaches a sociology course. Anderson returned in July to assist in promoting gift annuities for the college during the school year.

Coach Chaplain is looking positively toward this volleyball season. He assures us, "We're a good team, and we're going to get better."

is an Admissions counselor for M-AC, as well as soccer coach.

Although Schutt is a plus for the soccer program, the teams' greatest strength is heart. Their determination led them to their first victory of the season with a 2-1 triumph against Brevard.

Leland Globke summed up the teams' potential with this statement, "I think that if every player contributes we shouldn't be disappointed at the end of the season." M-AC's 1993 soccer team is a good contender for the conference this year.
