

Cavaliers Defeated by Sixth Ranked Eagles

By Sean Anderson

The basketball team travelled to Daytona Beach Florida this past weekend to take on Embry-Riddle College. The Cavaliers lost to the Embry-Riddle Eagles 99-71. The Eagles are ranked number six in the country and had 61 wins and 5 losses of their last 66 home games.

M-AC played well in the first half. The Cavs jumped to an immediate nine point lead. Midway through the first half, sophomore Jonathan Bennett and Aaron Gabriel were leading the way to victory. However at half time, the Cavs were down by eight points.

According to assistant coach Roger Idstrom, Montreat played well in the first half, but made some expected mistakes.

Coach Idstrom explained, "After half time the team was in position to win the game, but came out flat with no intensity."

The leading scorers were Brad Gabriel, with 20 points, Aaron Gabriel, with 12 points, and Travis Ross, with 13 points. Rodney Scott also contributed seven rebounds.

Freshman Jeff Sheets said, "The first half we executed our plays well and in the second half, Embry-Riddle was intense and really hustled well. We didn't come out as focussed as the other team."

The team will be challenging Alice

Lloyd in Pippa Passes, Kentucky, tomorrow at 4pm. The Alice Lloyd Eagles were national tournament champions last year and have three of their top players returning. These players are: Rick Conley, who is 6'7", Russell Clark, a 6'3" guard, and Shawn Hagar, a 5'9" guard. This team is expected to do well in the conference is expected to be one of the top teams.

Biased Calls Contribute to Lady Cavs' Loss

By Kathryn Letterman

The Lady Cavs opened their season this past Saturday with a tough break against Alice Lloyd. The final score was 67-87.

In the first half, the Ladies allowed Alice Lloyd inside for easy scoring. But in the last five minutes, the Ladies scored 15 points, bringing the half time score to 25-31.

The crowd as well as the players felt the tension that was displayed on the court throughout the game. Coach

Dana Bostic felt that the referees lacked consistency and were unfair. Bostic also commented that due to the referees' biased calls, it made it more difficult for the less experienced players to feel confident about how to play the game.

Spectator Jamie King expressed, "Even if we had played our absolute best, the refs would not have let us win."

Despite all the conflicts, the ladies still played a good game. Top scorers for the game were Kristy Woody with 16 points, Amy Baker with 13 points, and Shon Snipes with 10 points.

Tonight the Lady Cavs will venture on a five day journey to Florida to challenge Warner Southern and Webber College. On Monday at 7pm, they will face Warner Southern, followed by Webber College on Tuesday at 5pm.

While in Florida, the players will explore Disney World and the Magic Kingdom. As they return on Wednesday, they will stop off at Daytona Beach for a day in the sun.

Outdoorsman Undeterred by Rain

By Sean Anderson

The Nantahala Outdoor Center held a festival in their parking lot on Saturday, October 30. The Center is located in Bryson City, North Carolina, overlooking the Nantahala River.

The purpose of the festival was to provide an opportunity for people to buy outdoor recreational gear. M-AC student Michael Grant commented, "The prices were negotiable and realistic."

Campus Welcomes New Family Member

By Cara Weiss

There is a new face in the old front office of Gaither Hall. Teresa Chaplain entered her new full-time role as Office Manager for the Advancement Office on October 26.

Chaplain took the place of Laura Erminger, who moved to Florida. Chaplain once worked at West McDowell Junior High School, where she taught a careers class.

She has many responsibilities to keep her busy. Some of these are: providing support in researching and contacting major donors, recognizing and awarding

The festival began at 6am with long lines of people waiting to buy new and used gear for camping, paddling, and backpacking. The used equipment was sold quickly.

There was a large turn-out for this year's festival despite the wet and rainy weather. The festival is an annual event for those outdoor enthusiasts needing equipment at a reasonable price.

donors, developing enhanced computer support for Advancement operations, and submitting recurring grant proposals.

Chaplain works indirectly with the students. One of her many job duties is to assist in the supervision of her student workers.

With regard to her new job, she exclaimed, "I love it! I enjoy being around the students."

Chaplain received her position by completing an interviewing process with Jack Whatley, who is the assistant to the President.

Discussion Group Explores Relevant Topic

By Kathryn Letterman

Veritas will hold an open discussion in the prayer room this Sunday at 8:30pm for all those interested in sharing their ideas concerning relationships.

"This Veritas won't just be philosophizing, we will actually have the chance to concretely experience our topic. We're not just going to talk about relationships, we're going to do them," claimed Veritas leader Robby Suddeth.

Clay Martin, former student and secretary for Veritas also added, "This topic represents a change in the whole attitude that Veritas has put forward. Before we can talk about God, or the universe, we have to figure out ourselves. This year's leaders agree with this attitude."

When asked why Veritas chose this particular subject for discussion, President Eric Bush expressed, "It seems to be a core problem for all different kinds of people because all of us are trying to understand why relationships work and why they don't."

Couples Experience New Commitments

By Marcy Buckner

Diamonds can be seen sparkling on the left hands of several females around campus. Some of the guys wear gold bands, and some couples are seen carrying a diaper bag and pushing a stroller.

Several members of the M-AC family have recently become engaged, have gotten married, or have begun families of their own. So that everyone might share in these couples' joy, the following is a list of the ones who are due congratulations.

Engagements:

Amanda Kunkel and Joel Adams will be hitched on April 30, 1994.

Ken Lakin and Dawn Staton will begin their lives together on June 11, 1994.

Marsha Evans and Scott Vuncannon will marry on July 2, 1994.

Cheryl Baiera and John Harris will become a family on August 6, 1994.

Marcy Buckner and Mark Keels will join together in January, 1995.

Angela Berry and Larry Gritton will unite in August, 1995

Newlyweds:

Bill Barrett and Kathryn Anderson were married May 1, 1993, and are expecting a child in December

Jennifer Gunsch and Anthony Moore were married July 2, 1993, and are expecting a child in January.

Anne Fomey and Brent Ozanne were married August 7, 1993.

Mike Liebler and his wife, Linda, were married June 5, 1993.

Births:

Jodi Ballard and Todd Starkey celebrated the birth of their son, Joseph Andrew, on Thursday, November 4, at 3:05am. Their son weighed seven pounds and 11 ounces.

The Aletheia welcomes any future engagement, marriage, or birth announcements. These can be submitted to the Aletheia box located in the document center.

Families Take Leave After Eventful Weekend

By Anna Shlmaya

Family Weekend united many students with their families for a brief time. Sophomore Katherine McIlwain commented, "Family weekend was very good. I got to see my parents and had a very nice weekend. I think we should have Parents Weekend next year. It's very good for new students, also, old students to see their parents."

Also Cary Willcox, director of Student Activities, commented, "I thought it went very nice. A lot of parents came in that I was not expecting. I think they enjoyed the leaves and surroundings, and the chance to spend time with the students that have been going to school here. I got to know some of them [the parents]. ...maybe more parents will be more interested in coming to enjoy the time to see the professors and enjoy the time with the students. They are going to have a great time."
