The January meeting of Baptist Women was held at the home of Ruth Dawson. Ida Simmons gave the program on refugees and internationals with Betty Blanton closing the program with prayer. Ever Whitaker presided over the meeting. Mary Jo Jolley presented the Prayer Calendar. Ruth Sarratt gave the Secretary's report after which the group discussed projects to be done the month of January choosing to do canned goods for the needy to be brought to the church and discussed for a needy family when the occasion arises. Betsy McSwain taught a chapter from the W.M.U. Manual after which the group enjoyed a delightful time of refreshments and fellowship.

The home of Terri Headley was the setting for Young Baptist Women's Meeting. Jan Houser gave a very interesting program and gave the call to prayer. Katie Hamrick presided over the meeting. A social period followed.

"A backward look" was taken at the meeting of Sunshine Club on Wednesday morning when Betty Blanton reviewed the meetings, happenings, and tapes that the group have enjoyed for the past eight years. Mrs. Blanton and Mrs. Ida Simmons were instrumental in organizing the club for senior adults. The group heard a very timely devotional given by Mrs. Mary Lee Dobbins. Mrs. Ethel Ray presided over the meeting. Mrs. Ida Simmons read the names of the sixteen members that have died in the past eight years and Garland Jolley played a tape of Mr. Karl Jordon, Sr. singing "The Holy City". Rev. Ronald McSwain led the closing prayer. A delicious covered dish lunch was brought by those attending. Ever Whitaker and Mary Jo Jolley served as hostess for the meeting.

Mrs. Cleo Wallace visited with her sister, Mrs. Irene Pritchard at the Edgewood Nursing Home in Spindale on Monday and took her to Spartanburg. Then on Tuesday her guests were Mrs. Charles Humphries and Mrs. Joe Dean Pritchard and La Wanda all of Cliffside. On Sunday Mrs. Wallace visited her grandson, Mike Greene.

Friday guests of the Steve Goodes were Mr. and Mrs. Ronney Alexander and Christy. Then on Sunday Mrs. Goode attended a Shower for Mrs. Joan Jones at the home of Mrs. Lavonda Shires in the Trinity Community.

Visiting with their three aunts, Oaksie Toney, Ada McGinnis and Salena Humphries in the Shelby Convalescent Home on Sunday afternoon were Mrs. R.T. Cromer and Mrs. Bob Hamrick.

We extend community sympathy to Mr. Bobby Goode and family in the death of Mrs. Goode this week and to Mrs. Ida Simmons in the death of her uncle, Mr. Hatcher McGinnis of Shelby the latter part of last week.

Dr. Malcolm Tolbert, Bible Scholar, To Talk

What does the Bible teach about divorce, faith healing and speaking in tongues?

Dr. Malcolm Tolbert, Bible scholar, pastor and author will answer these questions during the Monday, January 23 meeting of the Gardner-Webb College Lifelong Learners group.

The seminar will be held in the college's Dover Chapel from 2 until 5:30 p.m. and is open to members of the ministerial group at no cost. Non-members may participate for a registration fee of $5.

Tolbert, who is a professor of the New Testament at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, is currently writing a book entitled "Tough Questions - Straight Answers" in which he deals with the teachings of the Bible and their application to modern-day situations.

A native of Louisiana, Tolbert is a graduate of Louisiana College and New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary, where he earned a doctorate of theology.

He has served churches in Louisiana and Georgia, and has taught Bible and New Testament courses at Equatorial Brazilian Seminary and the New Orleans Theological Seminary.

For more information about the Lifelong Learners seminar, contact Garland Hendricks at Gardner-Webb College, 704-434-2361, Ext. 202.
