JOSEPH LAWLER, WENDELL ROBERTS, J. K. DALQUIST.

HUNTING NEW WILLIARD

Boxing is to Come Into Its Own Among Hospital Men.

"Zowie."

"Right in the mouth."

These are a few of the ejaculations which will echo among the ward buildings of the base hospital soon. Boxing is to be given a complete try out. An arena is being prepared back of the detachment barracks row. Bouts between men of the detachment and between mit artists in the camp will become regular affairs. It is planned to charge a small fee for front seats and to divide the proceeds between the glove warriors.

GET THEM TOGETHER.

Private Torrello and Private Donovan are understood to be the best mit wielders in the outfit and naturally one's thought turns to the staging of this pair. It certainly would be a great drawing card and "standing room only" would be in vogue when they get together. Both are fine boys and have scores of friends that believe in their respective ability. Top of this bout with a couple of prelims, and "Oh, what a night it would be." A committee has been appointed to see this through and the members of the detachment have a big surprise in store for them.

TWILIGHT LEAGUE.

Dewey O'Connor is leading the movement to re-enstate volley ball as a pastime for the detachment men. He is trying to arouse interest in an inter-barracks twilight league. He is seeking captains for such teams from each barracks.

BASEBALL

This leader of outdoor sports has been revived at the hospital. Owing to the fact that the Government has taken over our old field for building the inter-barracks league

But with the laying out of a new field in the rear of the barracks this sport will soon be placed on a firm basis. This fact was proven last Saturday afternoon when the strong Medical Supply Depot team was defeated by an eleventh hour team from the hospital. The score was 13 to 5, which goes to show that our boys haven't lost their batting eyes by any means. The game was full of excitement from beginning to end and the final result was quite a surprise to the Supply boys. They are clamoring for another game and one will be arranged for some time this week. The surprise of the game was a successful steal of second base with the bases full. This was attempted by Levine and through a series of wild throws resulted in two runs.

The pitching of Roberts and of a stinging two-bagger with two men on bases by Lange were also outstanding features.

We have a wealth of material for a championship team and if the boys will only come out and get into the game there is no doubt but what we will be able to defeat the best teams. We have plenty of equipment and if there is anything lacking we can get it. We are anxious to arrange games with any teams in the camp, the Y. M. C. A secretaries preferred. Notify Private K. L. Dalquist, manager.

WHO WAS WHO IN ATHLETICS

It is the science and "pep" of American sportsmanship against the hate of the Hun and the base hospital has its full share of organized strength for the critical moment.

We are going to run a list of former gridiron, diamond, and track terrors each week. Here are a few:

Sergeant "Doc" Rand, for instance, was a crack end on the Hebron Academy eleven and also coached St. Ambrose College of Davenport, Iowa. This college, while not very well known in the East, has the reputation of turning out exceptional teams.

Corporal "Bob" Martin for several years played on the line for the Academy's crack professional outfit in New Haven, Conn. The team was always a runner-up for the championship and Martin was considered one of the mainstays of the team. He also played a brilliant game of baseball.

Sergeant Hages is quite proficient in wrestling and while at Fort Riley, Kansas, was rated as one of the best.

Private Walt Sullivan played basketball before entering the service and is a very clever athlete.

Private Dannie Bently played quarter for the Morris Heights Prep. Anyone that has seen this team play will testify as to its strength.

Private Jackie Doyle played with the Salem Normals and was considered a fine school boy tackle.

Private Arlidge played in the Carolina Association four years with the Winston-Salem nine.

Private Dewey O'Connor played around the lots at New Haven, Conn.
