DRILL CLASS.

There has been started a class in drill for the officers of the base hospital under the directorship of Lieut. Meade. This class meets every day except Saturday and Sunday at 4 p. m.

CAPTAIN ENTERTAINS.

Capt. Nealon entertained at cards last Monday evening. Several of the officers were present. Lunch was served. Capt. McMahon won the first prize, and Lieut. Algood got the consolation offering. This is the beginning of a chain of parties to be given at the officers' quarters.

LIEUT. ALGOOD RETURNS.

Lieut. Algood has returned from his leave and reports that he had a very pleasant visit at his home. While en route upon his return to duty, some one stole his suit case containing a uniform and several other articles of wearing apparel.

ON TEN DAY LEAVE.

Lieuts. Lee and Sharry left the hospital Thursday for a ten days' visit at their homes.

SPEAKS ON TETANUS.

There was a meeting of the surgical division of base hospital No. 54 at 9 o'clock Thursday morning. Major Wainwright spoke on tetanus and its treatment. These meetings will be held at the same time each morning and some topic of interest will be discussed by some member of the surgical staff.

CAPT. CARNEY IMPROVES.

Captain Harold Carney, who has been seriously ill for several days from an attack of pneumonia is reported to be improving.

ITALIAN BANQUET

The thirty Italian men of the detachment were off duty on Friday afternoon in recognition of the anniversary of Italy's entrance into the world war. Several of the sons of that southern land gathered in a banquet celebration at the Stonewall hotel on Friday evening.
