

UNDER THE CROSS AND TRIANGLE

Private GEORGE RYDER

TALIESIN W. DAVIES, Y. M. C. A. Secretary

MEMORIAL DAY MARKED BY RELIGIOUS SERVICES.

Large Per Cent of Base Hospital Force Obeys Call To Prayer.

Solemnity marked Memorial Day at the base hospital. Suspension of all unnecessary labor had been ordered by Commander Major Renn, on Thursday. Construction work was halted for the day. Reville was sounded at the hour reserved for Sabbath days.

High mass was observed by the Catholics at 9:30 in the chapel building, in accordance with the President's proclamation that the day be one of special devotion. Prayers were offered for the success of Democracy's cause. The altar was draped in flags and patriotic emblems.

Father Paul Bethel, acting camp chaplain for the Catholics, conducted the morning service. The tender personality of Father Bethel added to his words of devotion. The Catholics of the base hospital feel themselves indebted to the K. of C. organization for securing Father Bethel for the occasion.

Protestant of the base hospital held services in the Y. M. C. A. building at 10 o'clock. Secretary Davies was in charge of the meeting. There was a fervent prayer for the cause of justice and a short talk on "Reconsecration."

In the evening the Motor Mechanics Band gave a concert at the hospital band-stand. Every number was warmly received. The patriotic note was prevalent in the music. T. W. Milam, camp singer of the Y. M. C. A. is responsible for bringing the group of musicians to the hospital.

NEW K. OF C. SECRETARY.

Arthur Kelly, of New York, has joined the clerical force of the K. of C. at Camp Greene. He comes to the camp with a wide reputation as a newspaper man.

SCHMIDT GOES NORTH.

William F. Schmidt, who has acted as official photographer for The Caduceus, is among the 150 men called for duty at Allentown. Other arrangements will be made to obtain Camp Greene pictures for our publication, but we will miss the energetic way of Comrade Schmidt. We take this means of thanking him for his work while here.

PLEASANT ENTERTAINMENT.

We were afforded a very pleasant time Tuesday evening at the "Y." Mrs. Strong, wife of Captain Strong, and Mrs. Clark, wife of Captain Clark, entertained us with piano and violin solos. It is needless to say that every one enjoyed the evening to the utmost. Here was also a vocal duet which received much applause.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

Secretary Martin spoke at the Detention Camp last Sunday evening. Professor Milam led the singing.

* * *

Secretary Davies spoke at the Calvary M. E. Church of Charlotte, last Sunday morning.

* * *

Dr. C. L. Jackson will speak at the Steel Creek Presbyterian Church next Sunday morning. This church has the name of being the largest rural Presbyterian church in North Carolina.

* * *

The "Y" is sorry that the smiling countenance of Private John K. Williams, former Y. M. C. A. secretary at the base hospital "Y" will not be seen again. He has run off with the other good men from old "54." We wish them all "the best o' luck."

GOES TO PARIS ISLAND.

Joseph Turbet, who has been with the K. of C. for the past two weeks and who was well known at the base hospital, left for Paris Island on Thursday, where he will join Brother Egan.

WOULD ENLARGE CHOIR.

Catholics at the base hospital would enlarge their choir, which has been well trained under Choirmaster Ryder. The musical organization has been somewhat unstable because of the coming and going of nurses and enlisted men. Catholics at the base hospital who have vocal talent are urged to report to the choirmaster at once.

ENTERTAINMENT FOR SOLDIERS.

An entertainment for soldiers will be given on Wednesday night under the auspices of the St. Paul Presbyterian Church, on the church grounds, corner of Twelfth and Caldwell streets. Refreshments will be served.

PATRIOTIC PROGRAM.

Dr. Edwin Mims, lecturer and entertainer, will speak at the Sunday patriotic program to be held at the open air pavilion of the Soldiers' Club.

SPECIAL ENTERTAINMENT.

There will be a special entertainment at the Hebrew Temple on Sunday evening at 8 o'clock.

OPENING OF K. OF C. CLUB.

The new K. of C. Club for enlisted men, located in the old postoffice building, opposite the Y. M. C. A., corner of Second and South Tryon streets, will be opened on Wednesday night. An informal program, starting at 7 o'clock, will run throughout the evening. Welcome to all men in khaki.

GOES WITH NO. 54 MEN.

The "Y" bids a hearty Godspeed to the men who left us this week. One of our secretaries, Mr. Charles Martin, accompanied them, to do the men any service that he can. We shall miss Mr. Martin in the base hospital "Y" work, but cheerfully lend him for a while to the men who have special need at this time. During Secretary Martin's absence, Mr. H. Graustock, physical director of building 102, will assist in the work.

SUNDAY MORNING SERVICE.

The new plan for a service every Sunday morning at the "Y" began very promisingly last Sunday. Dr. H. P. Eckhardt, one of the Lutheran camp pastors, preached a very strong sermon. Dr. Eckhardt, one of the Lutheran camp pastors, preached a very strong sermon. Dr. Eckhardt is a man of winning personality and "takes" well at all the "Y's." Next Sunday morning the service will be in charge of Dr. H. O. Nash, the Episcopal camp pastor. Those who have heard Dr. Nash speak know that he is a thought-compelling speaker and they are always anxious to hear him again. This service is not for Episcopalians only, but for all. Ten o'clock is the hour.

CHEERY HOME HOUR.

Last Sunday afternoon the young people from the St. Paul's Presbyterian church of Charlotte entertained the soldiers during the Home Hour. The soldiers themselves participated in the entertainment at the call of Mr. White, the leader of the hour. An impromptu male quartette sang some selections, and Mr. Gates sang a solo in his usual pleasing manner. The members of St. Paul's church offers a welcome to the soldiers not only to their regular services but to their homes. The Paw Creek Presbyterian Church will be in charge of the Home Hour next Sunday. The soldiers are warmly invited to these Home Hour gatherings. They are informal and furnish a fine opportunity to the men to become acquainted with some of the best naturally and properly to that touch with home life which all the men in the camp should have in order to meet a real need.

INSPIRING SERMON.

Dr. John A. Hainer, the Baptist camp pastor, spoke very effectively last Sunday evening to a large audience on "Blind Bartimeus." We regret to say that Dr. Hainer's days in Camp Greene are numbered, as he shortly returns to his pastorate in Philadelphia. He has endeared himself to the men during his brief stay.