

GETS SCRAP BOOK.

There is a fine dash of color in the 100 scrap books which have just been placed at the disposal of the base hospital. The many colored books are from the children of the public schools of Rochester, N. Y., and were made before school closed last spring. They have been two months on the road to Camp Greene. Miss Marie Fox Wait, the librarian, has distributed many of the gay books through the wards and there are plenty more to hold the eye

THE CADUCEUS.

KEEP THE TRUCE.

If Life had made a truce with Love,
And hand in hand together
Made earth as fair as heaven above
That day my own were mine alone
Of all Time's stormy weather.

When Life and Love fall out again,
And frown at one another,
Then Love shall laugh for all his pain
She stole a day from Life away
That Life may never recover.
—Private A. C. Hoffman.

NOT MISNAMED.

The first part of the name of Willie Jane Roberts, the hearty little girl, born in the obstetric ward of the base hospital last week is in no way a tribute to William Kaiser. That Christian name is a tribute to the courage of her father, William Neff Roberts, Company 1, 9th Infantry, who is a part of the rush at the throat of the Teuton chieftain.
