

MEDICAL SUPPLY

TO VIRGINIA.

Corporal Fred Olandt, Private First Class K. D. Perry and Private J. H. Scruggs have been transferred to Camp Abraham Eustis, Lee Hall, Va., where they will be in medical supply work under Lieut. E. M. Eakes, former top sergeant of our detachment. We regret the loss of these men, but wish them success and the best of luck.

CONGRATULATIONS.

Private First Class Harry Miller has been commissioned as second lieutenant, and has reported for duty in the surgeon general's office, Washington, D. C.

Corporal Sam Stern has been commissioned as Second Lieut. and has reported for duty at Camp Grant, Rockford, Ill., where he will act in the capacity of Assistant Medical Supply Officer.

GOES UP.

Corporal Jos. T. Fitzgerald has been commissioned as second lieutenant, and has reported at Camp Devens, Mass.

Corporal Jerry Collins, who is in charge of the receiving warehouse, is now wearing his sergeant's stripes.

NOW TOP KICK.

Sergeant Noble has been promoted to sergeant, first class, and is now our "Top Kick." The detachment could not be better pleased than to have "Shorty" acting in this capacity, and has unanimously sworn allegiance to him.

"GOOD NIGHT."

"Doc" Arn claims that there is a certain fair one in Charlotte who can't appreciate a good thing when she sees it. "Doc" was strolling nonchalantly with the said young lady, during the intermission between dances at the Soldiers' Club, when he asked her the following question:

"Miss, do you like soldiers?"

"Yes," she replied enthusiastically,

THE CADUCEUS.

ALL THE WAY

PERSHING WILL CARRY THE STARS AND STRIPES.

The cartoonist who drew this picture and who is preparing the front page drawing for next week's issue of The Caduceus is Benjamin T. Shaw, of Charlotte, a young man who is gaining attention for his work in oils and who has volunteered to aid in embellishing the pages of the camp paper. He is employed in the display department of Belk Brothers' store.

"won't you please introduce me to one?"

Ralph Walters and Corporal Davidson, desiring to rise in the ranks, took a "Forty Eight" trip into the mountains of Western North Carolina. During the journey, they lost a wheel off the car, and the "question arises" whether it was the "M-m-m moon Shine Over the Cow Shed" or the rare atmosphere of the "Land of the Sky."

While Davidson was absent on his "Sky lark," a piano box full of blue envelopes, post-marked "Chicago," accumulated in the barracks. Since returning Dave has worn out three typewriter ribbons in an attempt to offset the attack of "blues."

Bob Durst has finally admitted that he came near contracting T. B. be-

JUST ORDINARY

MEALS OF DETACHMENT ARE FAR FROM STARVATION.

Ever so often we have to run a "we are starving" story for the benefit of the German morale in as much as we desire to claim no unfair advantage over our considerate enemy.

Here is the menu of the Sunday dinner at the base hospital and what is just an ordinary meal for we American soldiers:

Roast Beef	Gravy
Peas	Celery
	Bread
Ice Cream with Raspberry Syrup	Brown Potatoes
Cookies	Grape Juice

ONLY FOR BUSINESS.

A new camp order reads that the telephones in the camp buildings are to be used only for military purposes in the future. Soldiers will not be allowed to call up their friends in the city of Charlotte for a little social chat.

TRANSFERRED.

Private Carl Bissell of Connecticut, who has been at the U. S. Army base hospital, Camp Greene, for the past nine months, is transferred to General Hospital No. 16 at New Haven, Conn. Private Bissell left for his new field of action on Tuesday.

fore enlisting in the M. S. D. It came about by his sleeping in a room with all the doors and windows tightly closed, for fear he would be caught in the "draft."

What's in a name? Van Winkle, a descendant of Rip himself, is a wide-awake man. The other day he deliberately gashed his finger with a safety razor and rushed off in a southern direction. "Hawk Eye" Hungerford of the Secret Service, followed the trail of blood and found "Rip" happily perched on a table in Ward B-3, while a very charming nurse tenderly rendered first aid to the wounded warrior.
