Merry Morning . . . . . Sanderson.
Aria from Louise . . . . . Charpentier
(In French.)

Sgt. Gates.

Sunshine of your Smiles.
Baby's Prayer at Twilight.

Miss Torrence has an unusually fine soprano voice with quality and range which she uses in a masterly way.

The program closed with a number of choruses of popular songs sung by the soldiers present and led by Sec. Milam.

S. C., over Labor Day.
Corporal Arthur Hart of the detachment office was at home in York.

"THE LIFE BEAUTIFUL.

Rev. F. R. Bunker, recently returned from South Africa where he has spent many years in the education speaker of the evening at the "Y" of the natives of that country, was the at the usual religious night, and took entitled "The Life Beautiful." being the manner.

The lecture was preceded by some interesting views of Africa taken by the speaker during his life among the natives, showing their home life and habitations.

LUKE NINETEEN.

Dr. Charles T. Martin, conducted the regular Sunday morning services at the "Y" using as his text for his address Luke 19. He made a strong appeal to his auditors.

HOME SURVIVOR WORK.

One of the departments of the Red Cross in Camp Greene is that of the Home service. Mr. J. B. Branch is in charge of the department. His duties are to acquaint the soldiers with the privilege of the Civilian Relief Work; to follow up all letters addressed to the Red Cross about soldiers; to find out what family worries are on the heart of the men, and get the home chapters to relieve the need; to find out why allotments are delayed get them moving. It is the wish of the Home service Department of the Red Cross, Camp Greene, to find out every case of a soldier in this camp who has troubles at home so that they can be relieved. All such soldiers can come to The Red Cross Office near Liberty Park where he will be welcomed and helped.

EXCELLENT MUSICAL.

A small but an appreciative audience enjoyed a concert of songs Friday night at the "Y."

Captain Mary Francis Padgett, a diminutive little lady of six years, in the uniform of a captain, sang a number of popular songs in a very cute manner, and was roundly applauded for her efforts.

Miss Rachel Summerow of Charlotte contributed to the enjoyment of the evening by the rendering of the "Slumber Boat" and "Sunshine of Your Smile," in a particularly pleasing manner, and we sincerely hope to be favored with her return in the very near future.

Miss Myrtle Padgett accompanied the singers in an artistic and sympathetic manner.

Tuesday and Friday nights are entertainment nights at the K. of C. building. Friday night the entertainment consisted of seven numbers and moving pictures.

The new orchestra at the base hospital opened the evening program. This was the first appearance of the newly organized orchestra in public and they received great applause.

The other numbers consisted of solos and recitations and a double quartette singing a new song entitled "We'll lick the kaiser if it takes us twenty years."

Next Tuesday will be moving picture night and if possible there will be musical numbers.

GOOD PROGRAM

REILLY SUNDAY SCHOOL GIVES HOME HOUR.

A very pleasing Home Hour was given at the "Y" Sunday afternoon under the auspices of the Reiley Sunday school class of the Westminster Presbyterian Church, and led by Mr. J. K. Kirkpatrick.

The program was as follows:

Song: Come, We that love the Lord. . . . . Chorus.
Prayer . . . . . J. P. Kirkpatrick.
Recitation . . . . . Nancy Bell Reid.
Solo . . . . . Mrs. J. N. Sloan.
Song. A Soldier of the Cross . . . . . Chorus.
Recitation. . . . . Miss Sarah Dunlap.
Recitation . . . . .
Miss Willie May Kirkpatrick.
Solo . . . . . Miss Mary Allison.
Song, Come, Thou Fount of every Blessing . . . . . Chorus.
Accompaniments for the recitations and songs were nicely played by Mrs. J. H. Armbrust, and Miss Grace Phillips.

Each number was well presented and enthusiastically received by the large audience present.

K. OF C. NEWS.

The pool tournament at the K. of C. building started last Wednesday night. The first two to play were John Landers of the Medical Supply and W. L. Kenney of the Casual Camp.

The game was very interesting, both players keeping even throughout the game. Both men were rated at 35 giving them a 15 ball handicap on the scratch men who are rated at 50 balls. Landers won the game by the margin of one ball the score being 35 to 34.

There are thirty two entries in the tournament and the winners of each pair plays the winner of another pair. Thus making it a sort of elimination contest.

The first prize will be a box of cigars and the second prize one hundred cigarettes. The names of the players are posted in the building and the games can be played at any time. The sooner the tournament is finished the quicker we can start another one.

SNAPPY FILMS.

Charles Ray in "The Family Skeleton" a five reel drama was the picture offered at the "Y" on Monday night, and was a picture with a strong moral plot.
