

THE POST CANTEEN

OUR COUNTRY STORE.

Here is where we buy the rations which are "not in line of duty." Like all general stores the post canteen offers the variety of merchandise from officers' boots to a stick of gum. Lieut. Walter Mytinger is in charge of the hospital canteen service as well as acting registrar. Sergeant First Class Cameron is personally in charge of the original canteen and has superintended the work of setting up a second canteen on the company street. The men behind the counter of the "pay in cash or checks" store are, reading from left to right, Private Brown, Corporal Smith, Sergeant First Class Cameron and Private Fitch.

BLAZE OF GLORY

The show of life that we once knew at Liberty Park is returning with the refilling of the camp. Nearly every day finds a new store opened. The bright lights of "the soldiers' play ground" are showing with their old-time glory.

The limited service men and members of the 122nd Infantry are now making use of the camp amusement center and every preparation is under way to give them a proper welcome.

REVIVE TRENCH AND CAMP.

It is promised that Trench and Camp, the Y. M. C. A. paper will be brought out again, starting next week. L. W. Bloom, of Lakeland, Fla., a young newspaper man, has been brought here for the purpose of editing the organ. The Caduceus will be glad to give every aid to the publication.

GAVE VALUABLE SERVICE.

The Red Cross in this Camp did some wonderful emergency work among the 5,000 limited service men during the cold and rain of the past week.

Many of these men arrived at Camp wearing sport shirts and low shirts and without coats.

Major Gardner, the Red Cross Field Director, spent Saturday night and Sunday among these recruits and distributed eleven hundred sweaters, as well as a lot of warm socks, doubtless saving many a boy from having to appear at sick call the next morning. The Caduceus thinks this good stuff.

IN THE BIG CITIES
MUSICAL SHOWS
are always crowded. It is due to the fact that this class of show is

FULL OF PEP
and is entirely DIFFERENT to the usual run of
