

THROUGH THE CAMP

122nd INFANTRY

COMPANY H.

Sgt. Konkle, better known as "Poppy Konkky," spent three days with friends and relatives in Atlanta, Ga., mostly friends.

2nd Lt. Sandmeyer is now assigned to our company.

1st Cl. Privates Warren and Baumgardner have been promoted to the ranks of Lance Jacks.

That second tent of Company H seems to have all the "dope" concerning the doings in and about Charlotte, speaking from the ladies' standpoint.

Sgt. Sparks, who is known as our special hunter, will hereafter let tame animals alone, as he had a narrow escape at Lakewood Park, while flirting with a chained bear.

COMPANK G.

Changes in the Non-Com. personnel of this company:

To be Sergeants—Corporals Dunn, Coffey, Sears and Hayes.

To be Corporals—1st Cl. Pvts. Kolium, Staby, Massell, Dorgan, Danelman, Mordstorm, Colman, Gerling, Souneman, Sorg, Novy and Seeley.

New Assignment of Lieut.—2nd Lt. Howell and Heller.

Corp. Bryant of this company is visiting wife, parents and (?) in Atlanta. He is expected back some time soon.

COMPANY F.

Sgt. Baker is no longer a single man. It happened to be an Atlanta girl this time.

Pvt. Peter Wilhelm is on a three pass. Kitchen Police.

It has been reported that Lt. Morrison smiled one day last week.

Sgt. Daniels has bought a new uniform and has requested the Q. M. Sgt. to put in a req. for seven umbrellas to be issued to Sgts. as he has set an example.

Corp. Holland has been reported to be in love with a certain actress. We are afraid to mention names as Holland is an ex-prize fighter.

COMPANY E.

1st Lts. Parker and McCullers are back with the company, after a few weeks of special duty.

Corp. White is developing to be the "Candy Kid" of E company since he purchased $15.00 worth. (Competitive Contest.)

Sgt. Hogan wishes it known to his many friends that he is not a draft-dodger but an expert provost dodger.

BALL POSTPONED.

Owing to the death of our Camp Commander our Non-Commissioned Officers' banquet and ball given us by the Officers of the Sec. Bat. has been postponed until Thursday. Quite a number of Charlotte ladies are to be our guests.

Proof shows that it is going to be a great success. For we owe them a good time for the hospitality shown us during the time while here.

CORP. SALTER, H Company.

MOTOR LIFE

AMBULANCE CO. NO. 429.

Lieut. Married.

1st Lieutenant Jesse A. Goods, M. C., of this company, and Miss Elmina Dandy, of Horton, Ala., were united in marriage at Atlanta, Ga., on Saturday afternoon, September 7th, 1918. The marriage followed a romance of several years. Lieut. and Mrs. Goods are now making their home in Charlotte. The members of Ambulance Company No. 429 all unite in extending their most hearty congratulations.

Our friend "Jerry" is still on duty in the Mess Hall and is rapidly getting himself together again.

Sleuths are now at work running down clues concerning Mechanic Haskell's last adventure in Belmont. Be sure and buy the next issue of The Caduceus when all of the facts in the case will be revealed.

Sergeant Scanlan is still worried. Never mind, old top, the party will wait for you, but we would not trust Sergeant Braun too much, for we know him too well.

Privates Smeltzer and Wolfgang painted the top of the kitchen but the cooks had to chase the "Big Swede" out in order to prepare the meals.

Corporals Tewell and Olivieri were on their way to Berlin the other afternoon but owing to the kindness of Sergeant Hinkle (who woke them up), they are not still going. "Take Intervals."

Chauffeur Jordan doesn't seem to realize that we haven't had the ambulances long enough, so that they will exist and still keep in running condition on a camel's diet. What, say, Sharp?

Private 1st Class Paul F. Hudson, the authority on Track Events, wants to keep that ten-spot in his pocket or somebody will be just naturally taking it away from him.

Privates Ochsenbecker and Fischer are in good humor this week. Both are driving again.

Sergeant Guthrie has a new one—why is a motorcycle?

Our friend "Davy" Williams left us awhile this week. He said he was in the state of "coma."

Private Straw and McWhirter are still receiving a large amount of mail. We would too, if we wrote as often as they do.

What next? Fischer and Irvin are going to take dancing lessons. Say, fellows,—can you imagine those two on the dance floor, trying to dance and talk at the same time?

Sergeant Braun received a carton of cigarettes the other day. We are sure that no man was foolish enough to send him these.

What's the attraction, Harper, at the little lunch counter?

Tents Nos. 7 and 9 have declared for peace once more. But, look out, "The Big Russian" is liable to start something any time.

ORDINANCE

ELECTED COMMITTEEMAN.

Ordinance Sergeant Orin M. Peters was chosen as Democratic party committeeman for the county of Milwaukee at the primary elections in the state of Wisconsin on Sept. 3rd.

AIN'T IT SO?

Ordinance Sgt. Peters is feeling blue these days since he received this little note from one of his Milwaukee steadys:

"If you can fight like you can love, God help Uncle Sam."

Pete says: "I should worry; I'm in the Jewish infantry. They don't fight."

OUR STREAMER.

From the office of the Ordinance Depot Company No. 117 there proudly floats a black and red streamer bearing the shell and flame, the insignia of the department.

For two weeks or more the streamer, which by a masterpiece of the handiwork of Ordinance Sergeant Betsey Ross Leonard, the Czar of the Balance of Stores desk, has kissed the North Carolina breezes indicating to the world a haven of refuge.—"The Port of Missing Man."

THE BLAZEZD TRAIL.

Instead of treating Gay Paree, the Huns are retreating back towards the land of the sausage.

It is again reported that von Hindenburg has committed suicide. That man has more lives than the strong-throated tom cat on the back fence.

Foch and Pershing make a good battery in the world's series.

Give your buzz wagon another vacation Sunday and save more gasoline that is needed by our Government and allies.

"Little Davie" says: "I have read the dictschunary from cover to cover, and I'll be blawsted if I am able to find many place where hit says double time. Where do they get that hold stuff hanyway."

When it was raining, the Swede could be seen running around in his shirt sleeves, but he was seen on the first nice morning with a raincoat on. When asked what the idea was, he said that he believed in preparedness.

Little Heth is now trying to find out some way to get married by mail. And advise along this line will be appreciated by the boys.

Private Hawkins returned to this company this week, after a few weeks confinement in the Base Hospital.

"Pinkie" Gilmore left this week for a few days visit in Denver, Colo. Hurry back, Pinkie. We sure do miss your smile at the canteen.

Our "star Chauffer" Fischer, is another who tried the Q. M. substitute far gasoline, but good as he is,—could make it word.
