

RECONSTRUCTION

ENJOYED AUTO RIDES.

By Sergeant Ray J. Derwort.
As the guest of Mrs. H. B. Fanler, 906 W. avenue the following men enjoyed an auto ride last Friday—Stanek, Fuller, Gowing.

As the guest of Mrs. P. H. Hadley 409 E. Boulevard the following men enjoyed a trip, Monday—McIntpre, Lambert.

The War Camp Community Service placed three large cars at the disposal of the patients of this Ward under the supervision of Mrs. Jeremiah Goff.

The following were the fortunate ones to enjoy the ride—Stanek, Armstrong, Stalvey, Kisich, Colville, Johnson, Hoffman, Skelecki, Natale, Vickers, Gaberman, DeGroat, Parrott, Bille.

CHANGES OF THE WEEK.

Arrivals
Natalie
Vickers
DeGroat
Gaberman

Departures
Nalitz
Gowing
Fuller

The chilly weather of the early part of the week put lots of "Pep" into the patients of this Ward. We had to put shackles on Stanek and Parrott to keep them from losing us on the hike.

WISE AND OTHERWISE.

Stanek is slowly recovering from the injuries received when he was thrown to the floor by Hoffman. The barber is treating his misplaced eyebrow and a pair of "Bones" will mend the broken dollar bill.

JOKES AND NEAR JOKES.

By BURWARD B. COLVILLE

Reconstruction Barracks.

Thompson: What do you like best about a girl.

Parrot: My arms.

Parrot: What have you been doing?

Colville: Oh I've been dreaming about—

Parrott: About what?

Coville: About ten minutes.

HARRAH.

Why are the Allied armies like dummies eating Watrmelons? Because they will soon get to the (Rhine.)

Dies Suddenly.

(Continued from Page 5.)

ital, and also assisted in the development of the railway system of South America.

The military road from Manila to Baguio, the summer capital of the Philippine Islands, is a monument to the energy, skill and executive ability of Colonel Kennon, and for the work he received the personal commendation of President Roosevelt.

Colonel Kennon was a writer of note on military subjects, and the author of several army manuals.

Colonel and Mrs. Kennon lived at 609 East avenue in Charlotte and it was here that Mrs. Kennon was notified of the colonel's sudden death. She hastened to New York on Monday morning.

Colonel William A. Kent of the 810th Pioneer Infantry, who was called to command the camp in the absence of Colonel Kennon, is temporarily the camp commander.

MASONIC NOTICE.

All Masons of Camp Greene are requested to be present at the Masonic temple, Saturday night at 8 o'clock. Important.

Sergeant to Johnson at drill: Dress up there Johnson.

Johnson: I can't dress up, these are all the clothes I have.

Soldiers cordially invited to the

BROADWAY

Charlotte's Leading Movie

Monday } THEDA BARA
Tuesday } IN
"A FOOL THERE WAS"

Wednesday } Tarzan OF THE Apes
Thursday }

Friday } GLADYS BROCKWELL
Saturday } IN
"A BIRD OF PREY"

Good Music

Gaumont and Hearst Pathe News

AUDITORIUM

Saturday, September 14

Charlie's Aunt

Tuesday, September 17

AL. G.

Field's Minstrels

Saturday, September 21

Soldier Who Came Back

Section of Balcony Reserved for Colored Soldiers