CHRISTIAN SOLDIER

"His life was that of a Christian soldier," was the reference to the late Colonel L. W. V. Kennon by the Rev. A. A. McGeachy, D. D., pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, at the beautiful memorial services conducted for the late camp commander at the First Presbyterian church, in Charlotte last Sunday.

"Colonel Kennon drew men to him by his personality," said Rev. Dr. McGeachy. "He left the mark of his paternal care upon the minds of the men of Camp Greene."

The auditorium of the church was filled with Charlotte friends of the Kennon family and with officers and enlisted men from Camp Greene. The Rev. Albert Sidney Johnson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, presided during the scripture readings. The Rev. Daniel Iverson of Camp Greene offered prayer.
