"Where Quality Tells"

in the camp and it was believed that the majority of these would come forward and enroll for the work.

Practically all of the organizations now at the camp are represented in the staff of temporary officers elected at the meeting which consists of: Capt. D. G. Everhardt, president; Capt. R. P. Roloff, first vice-president; Lieut. C. G. Miles, second vice-president; Sergeant First Class C. O. V. Johnson, secretary; Private H. W. Rogers, assistant secretary, and Major C. H. Greene, treasurer. A committee to draw up a constitution and by-laws was chosen consisting of Capt. S. L. Darlin, Lieut. D. Mackey and Private R. W. Walters.

In compliment to Colonel Kent the organization was named the "Kent Masonic Club of Camp Greene," which found favor in the eyes of all with the possible exception of Colonel Kent himself, who is a modest gentleman and abhors anything that smacks of publicity.

SGT. 1ST. CL. C. O. V. JOHNSON,

It was agreed upon that the meetings were to be held weekly on Tuesday evenings which was believed to be held weekly on Tuesday evenings which was believed to be the most convenient night for the greater part of the men.
