MILLS MEANDERS.

Many enquiries have been made at The Caduceus office as to the whereabouts of one Private Harold A. Mills, sometimes known as "Oscar," but more popularly termed "Ham" by his more intimate associates, strange as it may seem "Ham" is absent on furlough. He is re-visiting his former home in Gloversville, N. Y.

CHRISTMAS

American soldiers in France will be restricted to one Christmas package each under an order issued by the war department. The gross weight must be no more than three pounds.

General March, the chief of staff, issued the following statement:

"The war department authorizes relatives or friends of officers and soldiers in France to send Christmas packages which will be of standard size and weight, one to each individual in the American expeditionary force. A standard container to be used will be 9x4x3 inches and the weight limit will be three pounds. Standard containers of the size indicated may be had by application to the local Red Cross chapters throughout the country.

"In order to insure the arrival of these Christmas packages in France and their distribution to the soldiers by Christmas all such packages must be mailed on or before November 15, 1918.

"In order to insure the limitation of one package per man, which in itself will consume a very large amount of tonnage, a plan has been worked out by which General Pershing is forwarding to the war department coupons on which are inscribed the correct names and addresses of the members of the American expeditionary forces. These coupons will be distributed, and no package will be forwarded without a coupon."
