TEND THE SICK

The entire force from every "Y" building in Camp Greene and the headquarters' staff has seen a busy time for the past week, both night and day. While visiting the sick and attending to their wants. The "flu" epidemic has brought a double duty upon the Red Triangle men and Saturday upon the return of Camp General Secretary J. T. Mangum from an official visit to Atlanta he laid plans for the visitation of the sick. Every day since that time has seen the men working among the wards of the hospital, in the clinics of the camp and in fact every place where a man could be of any service including the quarantined section.

Here they distributed reading matter, writing material, pencils, stamps, Testaments and in all their work keep an accurate account of every man visited. These daily visits are appreciated by the men who can't help themselves very much and it helps break the monotony of hospital life.

GOOD QUARTERS.

During the past week Mrs. Pirney and Miss Ash have entered new quarters at the entrance of the camp at Liberty Park, where one of the old mess shacks has been repaired, painted and floored and put in excellent condition. These quarters are only temporary but very homelike and will answer the purpose until the new hostess house which the Y. W. C. A. is building, can be completed. The contractors have the foundation and framework on the way and are rushing the work through as rapidly as possible.

MAKING IMPROVEMENTS.

Improvements are being made at the Red Circle Club for colored soldiers at 404 East Second street, which will considerably extend the activities of the club and enable the sub-committee of the War-Camp Community Service under the direction of which organization the club is conducted, to render a still greater service to the colored soldiers.

The second floor of the old Saunders hotel, which has been converted into a club, is prepared for sleeping quarters where soldiers may be accommodated over night. The sun-parlor on the front is to be used for a reading room, and the writing room on the first floor has been enlarged. Motion pictures twice weekly is one of the greatest attractions at this club where there are two excellent pool tables and a game room equipped with crocholine, checkers and other indoor games.

The donation of a number of splendid victrola records will add materially to the pleasure of those soldiers who enjoy "canned music."

FEW ACTIVITIES.

On account of the Spanish influenza throughout the Camp it has been almost an impossibility to have any activities of any character at the Knights of Columbus buildings, during the past week. However, the secretaries report the following schedule:

Herewith a list of the assignment of the K. of C. secretaries at this camp.

Building No. 1.—Secretaries Ralph McDermott, Edward O'Toole, James De Haven, William Schroeder.

Building No. 2.—Secretaries James McGrath, Charles Weber, John Stanzola.

Base Hospital Building—Secretary Joseph Downie.

The K. of C. Club at Charlotte—General Secretary, William M. Egan. Secretary Louis Potts.

QUARANTINED FOR LIFE

ARE YOU HELPING WITH YOUR BONDS.

TO HAVE PROGRAM.

The Y. M. C. A. will have a complete program all over the camp just as soon as the quarantine is lifted and have some special treats in store for the boys. At some of the buildings the movie shows have been held outdoors where the men were scattered about on benches.

About the first thing that Secretary Rutland did when he arrived at Camp Greene from Miami, Fla., last Saturday was to contract the "flu" and he was taken to the hospital at midnight that night and yesterday was dismissed in good shape. His home is at Auburn, Ala.

Major Lahey of Evacuation Hospital No. 30 has returned after a ten days' visit to his home in Boston.

OUT-DOOR MASS.

Masses on last Sunday were celebrated outside of both Number 1 and 2 buildings.

A large crowd of boys from Recruit Camp No. 4 and neighboring outfits enjoyed seven good reels of comedy moving pictures at Building No. 2 on Monday evening.

A large musical entertainment will be given at Building No. 2 on Thursday evening October 10, 1918. We will be obliged by hearing from some of the following numbers: Joseph Downie, K. of C. Secretary at the Base Hospital, who is already famed by his past performances as an entertainer at this camp; Secretary McGrath who is running our friend Joe for first honors as the most popular secretary in camp. It is an utter impossibility to list the programs, so boys just be on the job and you will get the treat of your lives. If you happen to be so unlucky as to miss it, why buy next week's copy of The Caduceus and read about it. Secretary McGrath will be in full charge of activities at building No. 2.

Secretaries Downie, O'Toole and Stanzola have been kept pretty busy at the Base Hospital since the influenza broke out in this camp, especially Secretary Downie, who deserves great credit for his untiring efforts for the past week. Secretary Stanzola has been taking care of the boys by seeing that they are supplied with writing paper, etc., while our friend O'Toole has been doing a great deal of writing for the boys to their mothers, sisters and sweethearts.

PLAN ENTERTAINMENT.

There will be a large entertainment of various varieties given at the American Red Cross Building on Friday evening if the camp authorities permit, for the amusement of the Nurses at the Camp Greene Base Hospital. Secretary Joe Downie has full charge of arrangements and if we know Joe as well as we think we do, then ladies and gentlemen prepare for one glorious evening of laughter.

Mr. William M. Egan is now General Secretary of the Knights of Columbus at this camp. He replaced Mr. John Kehoe, who left for New York some days ago to be at the bedside of a sister who is very ill. Mr. Kehoe will not return to Camp Greene, but will continue on to Asheville, N. C., to take charge of the Activities at the new Reconstruction Hospital which is located there. We announce with regret that we will also lose our our true friend, Secretary Joe Downie, who is going along with Mr. Kehoe to assist in this good cause. Secretary, Jim De Haven of Building No. 1 is also going to leave us to go to Asheville.

Announcement is made of the arrival of the following secretaries at Camp Greene, William Schroeder from Detroit, Michigan; John Stanzola, well known pianist of Hazleton, Pa., and Louis Potts, of Pittsburg.
