

THROUGH THE CAMP

ORDNANCE DEPOT

The sympathies of this company are extended to Ord. Sgt. Andrew Kelleher, whose brother has passed on. Sgt. Kelleher leaves this afternoon for Pittsburg.

Sgt. 1st. Cl. Hugh W. Smith and Pvt. Reggie Mathews, have been transferred to the Atlantic Loading Co., Hammonton, N. J. Both of the above mentioned men are past masters of Administration, wise and otherwise. They will be conspicuous on the "Boardwalk" in the near future in their new O. D.'s.

Pvts. Leary Gibbons and Autenreith have returned to this command after spending ten day furloughs at their respective home towns "Up North."

Ord. Sgt. Orin M. Peters, famous western lawyer, and late of the "Milwaukee Bar," is a bear when it comes to giving advanced calisthenics. He fears that if this strenuous exercise continues the company will be sadly decimated. It is rumored that Ord. Sgt. Garry and Pvt. Davis will conduct the morning exercises in the future. Taken for granted that his information is authentic it is conceded that the favorite games will be, Ring around the Rosy and London Bridge is falling down.

It is said that the well known worm turns. Ask P. B. Smith.

As a result of his experience on K. P. Pvt. L. Cl. Brandt will give a course on Chicken Physiology.

One of the questions given in the psychological exam: If Tuesday comes before November put a figure 3 in the square circle, provided, that pink is prettier than purple. If not, do likewise only more so. If you don't know the answer to the above question, guess.

Sgt. Ralph (Jasper) Young, the "Famous Southerner," the pride of Dixieland, relished the Boston beans that were served at the table. It has been rumored that some of the Sgts' relatives come from Boston, but this is uncertain.

Sgt. Singer hopes that the quarantine will soon be lifted as he has many social obligations to meet.

"I wonder why my watch keeps better time in March than October?"

"Because a 'spring' is better for a watch than a 'fall.'"

LOST—8-months-old black and white spotted dog. Named "Ted." Thought to have followed soldier to camp. Phone 1200-J. Reward.

INSTALL HEATING PLANT.

Looking toward cold weather accommodations at the Soldiers' Club, the War Camp Community Service has made arrangements to enclose the open-air pavilion and to instal a small heating plant there. This will prevent interruption of the mid-week and Saturday evening dances, which are so popular with the men in uniform. Advantage of the present quarantine is being taken to do this work.

The joint campaign will be conducted at the request of President Wilson. The local branches of all these organizations will receive a portion of the funds raised and which will be applied to local activities.

COMBINE

COMPANIES NINE AND TEN CONSOLIDATE.

The Tenth company under the command of Lieutenant Raeder, has consolidated with the Ninth company, with Lieut. James S. Gough in command. The first sergeants of the two companies, Sergeant Boggs, of the Ninth, and Sergeant Gilmore, of the Tenth, flipped the coin to ascertain who should be the first sergeant of the consolidated company, the winner being Sergeant Gilmore. The two are getting along admirably, and in the Charlotte parade Saturday they expect to show the other companies the value of first class training and discipline.

The pavilion is forty by sixty feet and the cost of enclosing it all in glass to be used as a sun-parlor, as had been hoped, has been found to be prohibitive, and it will be necessary to use glass for windows only. The public at large does not know how the work of the War-Camp Community Service is financed, and it is not generally understood that the only source of revenue that the club has is its canteen. That small income is of course stopped during the quarantine period and amounts to very little during the dull seasons when the club population is small as it has been for some weeks past. Every other service rendered men in uniform at the club is free.
