OFFICERS CLUB

IS TO BE ESTABLISHED IN CHARLOTTE.

After repeated efforts covering a period of nearly twelve months, provision has been made through the national headquarters of the War-Camp Community Service, for the establishment at the Southern Manufacturers Club, of a club headquarters for Camp Greene officers. There will be a nominal charge of $1.25 per month, payable in advance.

The membership is limited to 400. Memberships will be issued in the order application is received.

Facilities for officers at the club are dining room, writing room, pool, billiards, lounge, sleeping accommodations and bath. Frequent special features will be held, such as dancing, concerts, etc.

This plan for officers' headquarters will be given a three months' trial and if successful and satisfactory will no doubt, be continued. Success depends on the number of officers taking advantage of this plan.

The committee recommends that the officers as far as possible take a full three months' membership. For any full month's membership not used, the amount will be refunded.

Application blanks may be had October 26, membership to date from November 1 and thereafter. Application blanks may be secured from the following sources:

Chief clerk, camp headquarters; Lieut. A. C. Whitney, Warehouse No. 3, Camp Quartermasters; Lieut. Irving Tier, Registrar's Office, Base Hospital; War-Camp Community Service, West Trade and Mint streets.

HONORS BIRTHDAY

COLONEL MACOMB TELLS EXPERIENCES.

When the officers at Camp Greene were apprised that the sixty-fourth birthday of Colonel August Macomb had arrived, because of a telegram from Washington granting his retirement, a banquet was immediately arranged for. The gay affair was held in the headquarters mess hall and was attended by fifty officers of the headquarters staff and various camp companies.

Colonel Macomb assisted in the entertainment by relating his experiences when stationed on the western frontier in days when Indians were yet untamed.

Major Mannier, camp personnel adjutant, acted as toastmaster and carried on his work in a most successful fashion. Responses were delivered by Colonel Kent, Major Hannah, Major Morehouse and Lieutenant McClandish.

There was music by the Fourth Recruit camp orchestra and singing by the colored men's quartette of the 810 Pioneer infantry.

BACK TO DUTY.

Lieutenant Thier has returned to duty after a short stay in the officers' ward.

Lieutenant Cowles has also returned to duty, after a short illness.

First Lieutenant John Brim, formerly of Toledo, Ohio, reported at the base hospital for duty on October 19, and has been assigned to duty in the surgical service.

Captain Benton was transferred to Camp McClellan, Ala., on October 19, for duty with Base Hospital No. 126.

SURGEON IMPROVED

Major George C. Beach, camp surgeon, is much improved from his attack of influenza and pneumonia. His condition on Friday was such that he is considered past the danger point and his recovery expected. He is being treated in the officer's ward at the base hospital.

KEPT BUSY.

The epidemic of influenza has kept the officers very busy, leaving no time for much social life. What spare time can be taken from work is devoted to medicine ball. Strange stories concerning the prowess of certain members of the staff are current.

Captain Darling and Captain Hart are learning pinochle. It's been bitter medicine up to date.

Lieutenant Myles was a patient at the officers' ward of the base hospital from October 16 to October 19

TRANSFERRED.

Lieutenant Kahn has been transferred to Evacuation Hospital No. 30 for duty. The lieutenant left the staff of the base hospital on October 17, and has the well-wishes of all the officers of the base hospital.

First Lieutenant John Willis, Jr., formerly of Jersey City, N. J., has reported for duty at the U. S. Army base hospital, and has been assigned to duty in the surgical service.

First Lieutenant George E. Pfeiffer reported for duty at this post on October 17, and has been assigned to duty in the medical service.

Lieutenant Thomas has left the hospital on a short leave of absence for Pittsburg, Pa.
