

QUARTERMASTER

Have you heard the news? The $1.98 dog of the medical supply detachment was crossing from their warehouse towards ward C-8 and while he was not looking ran into an object of the same nationality. He showed his company's spirit and got sore and as for the result, I'll allow the medical supply bunch to report on his improvement. The Q. M.'s advise to have his eyes tested when the opportunity presents itself.

Sgt. Raymond has returned from a five day pass during which period he was touring the state in his Overland.

NOTICE: The sanitary squad may call now, at any time and draw their umbrellas at the Q. M. warehouse.

Lieut. Jonas Harvey the hospital Quartermaster, was absent for several days of the past week visiting at his home in Kingston, N. C.

Sgt. C. Malley spent the week end at Concord, N. C. at the home of Pvt. Webb also of this detachment and both enjoyed a very fine time, even if the record's don't show it.

Cpl. Staniland alias Frank Simmons has returned from his little town after war news.

LOTS OF BUSINESS.

Nurse: Who is the little Sgt. that packs the step ladder around on his shoulder all the time?

Q. M.: Oh! That is Sgt. Raymond, he is our electrician.

Nurse: He surely must have lots of work down "B" Row.

BACK AGAIN.

Pvt. Charles Kerkoff has returned from a ten day furlough at his home in Indianapolis, Ind. The boys at the detachment would not be surprised if he was tied up with the strings of matrimony. "Come on with the cigars and the Joe Daniels Special, Charlie."

Corp. Johnson has left for his home in Arizona for a 15 day furlough.

Our detachment was increased by four new men, 2 plumbers and 2 carpenters.

Any person desiring to get the "Dope" on the war should get in touch with "Frank Simons" Staniland.

MARCH OF ALLIES

GRAND SHOW OF COLOR TO CLOSE MINSTRELS.

"The March of the Allies," with a grand and triumphant blending of color and song, will mark the finals of the rousing Base Hospital Minstrel show, to be staged at the Auditorium on Thursday night, November 14th. The flags of the allies of Democracy and bits of the national airs from the lands that give their blood for freedom, will be introduced in this spectacle of Winter Garden glory that carries the snap of the New York stage in its every movement.

Work and more work is being put in on the coming minstrel performance, which promises to rival the theatrical efforts of the eastern cantonments under the direction of Irving Berlin. The glare of the footlights showing on the wealth of tapestry and scenic wonders which have been brought here for the hospital minstrels, will not shock or startle the performerers in the first hospital entertainment. The men who will bow their blackened faces before th Charlott public have answered enchores from the stages of the best known theatres of New England.

The many Charlotte friends of Calvin Gates, lyric tenor, will be glad to know that he will be among the soloists of the evening. He has already established his reputation here. He is preparing to execute two new ballads which have not proceeded as far as the graphophone records as yet.

The harmony quartette, stringed orchestra and comedy sketches will be other rare features of the raciest minstrel that has presented a song and chorus to the Charlotte folks.
