

THE CADUCEUS

BEGIN WORK ON TANK.

Carpenters and material have arrived at the Base Hospital to begin the labor of constructing a cover for the water tank there and from all indications the work will be carried thru with a rush. The tank at Camp No. 3 has been covered over very successfully and it is believed the shelter thus afforded will greatly aid in keeping water in a pure state.

THE LAD OF YESTERDAY.

Today we meet him khaki-clad,
Who yesterday was but a lad;
It makes one think how brief a span
The bridge that leads from youth to man.

But yesterday we saw him play,
A careless child, along the way;
Today we call on him to bear
A nation's burden, "Over There."
Our hearts grow warm, our eyes grow dim,

A nation's hopes now rest with him;
He heard the call, he did obey,—
That precious lad of yesterday!

Capt. Clark (to Italian patient):
"How are you this morning?"

Patient: "No mucha good, alla time sicka da bell'."

Capt. Clark: "Can you eat all right?"

Patient: "No, siree; me canna eata good."

Capt. Clark: "What do you eat?"
Patient: "Ebereyting."
