

IF OUR BURDENS WEIGH A TON OR MORE

THE 330TH MOTOR TRANSPORT COMPANY
When Camp Greene has burdens too heavy to bear, the broad shoulders of its stalwart men carry the Christmas turkeys and the camp Christmas trees, to the boxes of good things that Charlotte engines of the trucks that carry the load.

The names of the above members of the 330th Motor Transport Company, reading from left to right: Olenselager, Bolton, Musselman, Snyderman, McHardy; Lieutenant Winter, commanding; First Sergeant Zickerland, Parks, Miller, Smith, Brewer, Jones, Rosensteel and Corporal Peel.

Kneeling are: Sergeant First Class Herrens, Privates Hickson, Stahl, Alleson, Cling, Stobie, Cook, Graham, Herlekofer, Krockta, Haybar, Hall, Bradrick, Sergeant McMullen and Private Beck.

Sitting: Sergeants Sheridan, Peggy, Andrews, Corporal Blackweilder, Privates Maywaid, Smith, Worth, McHugh, Sutton, Krafstick, Houston, Forsee, Brestcoe, Nokes and Cummings.

REAL ART

CHARLOTTE PRODUCES RARE TALENT FOR CADUCEUS

ARE artistic talent of several young people of Charlotte has been employed to a valuable degree in producing the high standard that The Caduceus has attained in military journalistic circles. With the compliment from Washington, during the past week, proclaiming The Caduceus as one of the strongest magazines of the medical department of the U. S. Army, we feel called upon the more to thank these friends of the soldiers who have contributed so much to our success.

The picture on the cover of The Christmas issue of last week was a design of no ordinary rating and has been the subject of much flattering comment. It was the work of Miss Hallie McMillan, 605 Kingston avenue. Miss McMillan also designed the artistic frontispiece for the Thanksgiving number of The Caduceus.

The Charlotte News in commenting on the work of Miss McMillan as the producer of the cover picture has the following to say:—

"Miss McMillan is the daughter of Mrs. J. P. McMillan of Kingston avenue, Dilworth. She is a graduate of Elizabeth college, afterwards studying art in Pittsburg for two years. She has done work on the Southern Public Utilities magazine and for theater programs in the city. Those who have studied her work closely predict for her more than local fame in the years to come."

The cover for this issue of The Caduceus is the work of Bennie Shaw, window decorator for Belk Brothers and who has done extensive work for the Camp Greene magazine. Other pictures are by L. J. Frichard, Pine street, who has displayed no ordinary skill in his productions for past issues and Vernon Lawing, of The News office force.

FIVE DISCHARGED

The second group of men to be discharged from the enlisted personnel of the U. S. Army Base Hospital consist of: Henry Deatruck, Paul Armstrong, Leo Hawkins, George Hedge and John Durand. These men departed for their homes on Tuesday expecting to spend the happiest day of the year with their families.

Toomey Plumbing and Heating Company

INCORPORATED

Expert Sanitary and Heating Engineers

Office and Salesrooms: 29 South Church St.

Phone 785

CHARLOTTE, N. C.