

RAY STREET SCHOOL ASSOCIATION MEETS

The parent-teacher association of the Ray street school met Friday evening at the school. Mrs. H. T. Hudson, president of the association presided and the following program was given:

Mrs. Lillian Hayman's first grade sang a group of songs.

Mrs. C. E. Sullivan's sixth grade gave a Better Speech play.

Miss Marian Mabry's first grade sang a song.

A trio from Miss Pearl Sams' fifth grade sang "The Little Red School House." These were Ray Hepler, Susan Sharpe and Louise Kearns.

A group from Miss Myrtle Titman's fourth grade gave a folk dance, after which Charles Tomlinson, from that grade gave a reading.

Louise Caldwell and Victor Howard, of Miss Irene Holt's fourth grade, sang a duet.

Joe Harris Barker, from Miss Louise Townsend's fourth grade, gave a reading.

Mrs. Dan Schroder's seventh grade sang a chorus.

Anne Gertrude Douglas and Kent Douglas, of Mrs. A. M. Richardson's sixth grade, played a piano duet, "Indians Are Coming."

A number of reports from committee's were heard, after which the coming of the Carolina Playmakers on April 17 was discussed. Mrs. Hudson appointed several committees to arrange for the coming of the Playmakers. Several of the teachers who attended teachers assembly saw the Playmakers in Raleigh and were very enthusiastic about the performance given.

Superintendent W. M. Marr was present for the meeting and spoke on the bond issue for new schools which comes up soon. Another visitor was Rev. Lienbach, of Carlyle, Pa., formerly of this city, who spoke on "Recent Growth of High Point." Mr. Lienbach complimented the Ray street association for the progress it has made in such a short time.

Mrs. Lillian Hayman's first grade won the attendance prize, a picture of Robert E. Lee and Traveler.

The association will hold only one more meeting during the present term, the one in May, at which time officers will be elected.

HIGH POINT LOSES TO WINSTON-SALEM TEAM

Pierce made a nice catch in the ninth setto when he raced back into left field and speared a Texas leaguer.

The local boys are playing the Reidsville highs in the Rockingham metropolis this afternoon and a battle royal is expected inasmuch as the two teams are ancient rivals.
