CLOVERDALE HAPPENINGS

Mr. D. A. Snow, the new principal of Cloverdale school has taken up his year's work with great interest. Mr. Snow has won the admiration of every pupil of the school, and those of our parents who have met him.

The Parent-Teachers' association of Cloverdale school is having the front grounds sowed in grass, and many other plans are being made, in order to beautify the grounds.

Miss Irene is one of the second grade teachers who has been confined to her home several days, on account of illness, is back again to take up her work.

Mrs. Boyce is substituting in the sixth grade for Miss Irma Harrison, who was called to Mount Airy to attend the funeral of her uncle, who died suddenly on October 16.

Miss Florence Brown, one of our seventh grade girls, is absent from school on account of the death of her uncle. The burial will be at Springfield today.

Misses Blanch Powers, and Lulabelle Brown, seventh graders, of Cloverdale school have been absent from school several days, on account of diphtheria in their homes.

The Graterical club met Wednesday morning and elected the following officers: Henry Gurley, president; Emmett McLarty, vice-president; Joe Smock, secretary; Charles Salsbury, English Critic; Fred Ingram Order

Never put off till tomorrow a man who may be done today.
