For the Honor of the Family

Little Jackie took the church collection very seriously, and every Sunday morning he saw that his penny was ready.

One day just as the usher began to take the collection, Jackie noticed that a guest in the family pew was not duly provided. Sliding along the seat he whispered, "Where's your penny?"

"I didn't bring one," replied the woman.

Time was short, and the matter was urgent, but Jackie came to a decision with great promptitude. Thrusting his penny into the woman's hand, he whispered: "Here, take mine! It'll pay for you, and I'll get under the seat."—Pittsburgh Sun.

In Heaven Above, Where All is Love

"Doesn't it strike you that's a queer-shaped harp that new woman-angel is lugging around?" asked Sr. Peter with a perplexed frown.

"That isn't a harp, that's a radio set," answered Gabriel, with a pitying look at his superior. "She's enjoying her husband's howls from Station HLL."—American Legion Weekly.

Only the Shell

The pastor who was fond of figures of speech was making a funeral oration. He began his address, "Friends we have here only the shell of the man, the nut is gone."—The Churchman.

Preferably Clarence

"Clarence," she called. He stopt the car and looked around.

"I am not accustomed to call my chauffeurs by their first name, Clarence. What is your surname?"

"Darling, madam."

"Drive on, Clarence"—Daily News.

Remarkable Coincidence

Professor—"Give me a good example of coincidence."

Student—"My father and mother were married the same day."—Herald and Presbyter.
