

A Total of Sixty-Seven New Students Have Enrolled in H. P. H. S.

BOYS AND GIRLS COME HERE FROM EIGHT DIFFERENT STATES

Coming from eight states other than North Carolina, 67 boys and girls have registered for the first time in the High Point High School. The states represented are South Carolina, Indiana, Illinois, Virginia, Alabama, Florida, Iowa and Georgia. One student comes from Ontario, Canada. Forty-two of the newcomers are girls, while twenty-five are boys. Thirty-two enrolled in the freshman class, seventeen in the sophomore, thirteen in the junior and three in the senior.

The following are the new students listed according to the classes they registered in:

Freshman

Flossie Swaney, Randolph County.
Bessie Rayhill, Newsome, N. C.
Catherine Eve, Beaufort, S. C.
Lucile Brewer, Liberty, N. C.
Leola Allred, Starr, N. C.
Gracie Baldwin, Millboro, N. C.
Daphne Swiggitt, Archdale, N. C.
Gladys Robbins, Columbia, S. C.
Gertrude Clark, Thomasville, N. C.
Viola Ridge, Greensboro, N. C.
William Shillington, South Bend, Ind.
Ila Davis, Front Drum, N. C.
Grace Howard, Salisbury, N. C.
Myrtle Alice Gunn, Leaksville, N. C.
Lorraine Cox, Chicago, Ill.
Bobbie Weaver, Hopewell, Va.
Frances Hogan, Alabama.
Octavia Hensell, Fort Lauderdale, Fla.
Elizabeth Perry, Clartlon, N. C.
Jacklyn McMullan, Edenton, N. C.
Verna Cundiff, Iowa.
Hallie Smith, Durham.
Louise Clowney, Columbia, S. C.
Byron Abels, Lincoln, Nebraska.
Elwood Cox, Bonlee, N. C.
Gordon Carter, Kernersville, N. C.
Everett Clark, Mebane, N. C.
Wesley Keifer, S. D. A. School.
John Miller, Bethel, N. C.
Chester McGhee, Spencer, N. C.
James Petty, Private, N. C.
Joseph Wedon, Archdale, N. C.

Sophomore

Mary Elizabeth Tise, Greensboro, N. C.
Mary Eve, Beaufort, S. C.
Ruth Gross, Burlington, N. C.
Elizabeth Gurkin, Goldsboro, N. C.
Eugenia McMillan, Galax, Va.
Anita Phillips, Florida.

(Continued on Page 4)

GENEVIEVE SHEETZ AND RIP TABB ARE JUNIOR REPRESENTATIVES

Friday morning at home room period Genevieve Sheetz and Rip Tabb were elected by the Junior Class to act on the Student Council. The ones elected last year are not in the Junior Class this year, one being in the Senior Class, and the other not in school.

Wednesday morning each home room elected a representative to serve on a committee to nominate the Junior Representatives. Those elected were: Edgar Allen, Rose Askew, Fred Holcomb, Dot Kirkman, Irene McKinney and Genevieve Sheetz. These met after school Wednesday and nominated J. D. Koonce, Rip Tabb, Dot Smith and Genevieve Sheetz.

INA M'ADAMS TELLS WHERE HIGH SCHOOL TEACHERS "PLAY"

I am afraid we have not been keeping track of these teachers of ours as we should. Why last winter under our very noses one of them was married and we didn't know it. Then this summer another of them committed the same heinous crime. I decided to find out just what the rest of them did during their three months vacation. Upon inquiring I find that last summer—

Mr. L. R. Johnston, our principal, taught at Duke University. After this he spent a delightful three weeks touring Western North Carolina around Boone and Banner Elk. He also spent four pleasant weeks arranging schedules and doing countless other nice little things for eleven hundred students. Mrs. Johnnie Oakes Jackson, secretary, spent several weeks in Washington and at Myrtle Beach. Miss Anne Albright, dean, was supervisor of the Y. W. C. A. Camp, Maqua, at Bay City, Mich. Mr. Lewis L. Stookey taught in summer school at Auburn, Ala. We wonder where the city got its name and if that's why he went there? I also understand that Mr. Stookey had other summer activities which he prefers to keep locked in the secret chambers of his heart.

Miss Janet Harris visited New York and Virginia Beach.

Miss Elizabeth Lindsay spent her vacation at her home in Chester, S. C.

Miss Lyda Preddy motored through the Shenandoah Valley to Washington and back by way of Ocean View and Virginia Beach.

I find that Miss Mary W. Abernathy attended summer school at Chapel Hill, studying English, Math, and a little dramatics. She also spent some time in Fredericksburg, Virginia.

Miss Mabel Tucker stayed six

(Continued on Page 4)

ADVISERS OUTLINE WORK FOR SENIOR DRAMATIC CLUB

The Senior Dramatic Club plans to produce as its main attraction of the year, L. B. Hurley's play "Blue Diamonds." The play is a mystery-farce drama with a novel setting, staged with great success by N. C. C. W. two years ago.

During the year there will also be given a program of one-act plays to assure a wider opportunity for acting. One-act plays under consideration are "The Valiant," "The Man in the Bowler Hat" and possibly the fantasy "Aria D'Amor" which was successfully given at last year's Junior-Senior reception.

Membership to the Senior Dramatic Club this year will require a reading and report on two long plays or four one-act plays as a first requisite. Students who are not members of last year's club will do additional work, such as pantomime, illustrate make-up, etc.

The Senior Club will be under the direction of R. K. Marshall, Louise Hunter, and Mary Winn Abernathy.

An Element of Success

The big things just a decade or more in the future will be done by men and women who now are boys and girls in high school. Do you expect to accomplish great things in your life? You can find the answer to this question now. Unless you are daily developing the capacity for hard work, the answer is "no." By hard work is meant the capacity to tackle a task or a problem and to stay with the task until it is finished or with the problem until it is solved. This calls for a mind with intense concentrative powers—not merely capable of concentrating for a few minutes but for hours at a time. You are each day either improving this power or accomplishing just the opposite. If you are putting forth your best effort to master each assignment and all the while endeavoring to improve your methods of mastery, then you are on the road to big things. "For he that hath to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath."

L. R. JOHNSTON

FACULTY MEMBERS CHANGE SUBJECTS WHICH THEY TEACH

Because a leopard can't change his spots is no reason for a teacher not changing his or her subjects. This year a number of students have been surprised to find members of the faculty whom they thought well rooted in one department, transplanted, and to all appearances flourishing in other departments.

Miss Louise Shipman is now associated with the English Department, teaching Sophomore and Freshman classes. Mr. Owens, in order to make a careful study of Freshman needs in English, has one class of first year English.

Mr. Marshall and Mr. Patrick both are teaching two classes of Sophomore and two of Senior English.

Miss Meador has deserted Seniors for Freshmen. She has a Freshman home room, and is making a study of civics for the first year.

Miss Alcorn this year has one class of civics, while Miss Clinard has one of Senior history.

Mr. King and Mrs. Harbison this year divide the honors of teaching geometry with Miss Louise Hunter, who has four classes of math. III. Miss Abernathy also teaches Math this year.

Miss Smith now has two classes of business arithmetic.

Miss Collins is teaching French and Spanish.

Miss Tucker devotes most of her time to the teaching of chemistry. Mr. Sloan is no longer in the History Department, all of his work being science.

Home Room Period Schedule for 1928-1929

Monday—Assembly singing by the entire school under the direction of Mr. Stookey except on Mondays of the fifth and sixth weeks of each six-weeks period.

Fifth Week—Boys' Assembly.

Sixth Week—Girls' Assembly.

Oct. 8 Boys Feb. 25 Boys
Oct. 15 Girls Mar. 4 Girls

(Continued on Page 3)

Three-Fourths of Last Year's Graduating Class Attend College

HIGH SCHOOL HOME ROOMS ORGANIZE AND ELECT OFFICERS

Each home room held its election of officers, and otherwise organized Wednesday, September 19, at home room period. In some rooms the treasurers had already been elected to take care of the sale of football tickets. Not all rooms were able to complete their organization, but this was done wherever possible.

The captains, or presidents of the room, preside over the programs in their rooms, and in other ways represent them in their class. The lieutenants plan the home room programs and assign the parts to someone on their side, the room having previously been divided into two sides. Each lieutenant has either one or two assistants. The treasurer manages all the financial affairs of the room such as the selling of athletic tickets, operetta tickets, POINTER subscriptions, and so forth.

Senior Home Rooms

- Miss Harris, Room 105. Captain, Lucas Abels. Lieutenants, Lucile Dunn, Margaret Strickland. Treasurer, Carl Jones.
- Miss Barker, Room 208. Captain, Robert Morrow, Lieutenants, Mayna Allen, Lucile Lopp, Treasurer, David Parsons.
- Miss Lindsay, Room 106. Captain, Carl Connor. Treasurer, Ed Gurley. Lieutenants, Hybernia Hudson, Grace Walser.
- Mr. Patrick, Room 101. Captain, Wilbur Hutchins. Lieutenants Irene Seward, Jennie Lee Welborn. Treasurer, Banks Poston.

Junior Home Rooms

- Miss Collins, Rooms 210. Chairman, Wyatt Wall. Lieutenants, Willie Mae West, Levi Williard. Treasurer, Edgar Allen.
- Miss Abernathy, Room 311. Captain, Chessie Kinsey. Lieutenants, Raeford Faircloth, Eloise

(Continued on Page 3)

N. C. STUDENTS TO SPEAK ON "CITIZEN'S DUTY TO VOTE"

The following announcement appears on the bulletin board: "As one of the means of arousing the interest of the citizens of North Carolina in the discharge of their duty to vote, the American Legion, department of North Carolina, will conduct an Orator's Contest among the students of the High Schools and the Colleges in North Carolina on the subject, 'The Citizen's Duty to Vote.'"

The bulletin goes on to explain the requirements and the date of the contest. Any boy or girl in the eighth, ninth, tenth, or eleventh grade of a public High School is eligible to enter. The work must be original. This must be certified to by both the English instructor, and the principal of the school from which the contestant is entered. There is no minimum number of words which the essay may contain, but it must be delivered in a maximum of fifteen minutes.

Each school is to select its best

(Continued on Page 4)

HIGH POINT COLLEGE ENROLLS MORE THAN ANY OF THE OTHERS

Of the 112 High Point High School 1928 graduates, it has been definitely ascertained that seventy-seven are going to college, and six are taking business courses. Naturally, all of the graduates could not be located, but over three-fourths have been heard from.

The local college has almost thirty of this number in the Freshman class.

The schools which last year's graduates are attending are listed below:

High Point College

St. Clair Herndon, Hazel Hicks, Ivan Hill, Mary Briles, Elizabeth Hubbard, Vernon Idol, William Jarrell, Fern Daniel, Leslie Johnson, Fielding Kearns, Inez Kerr, John Easter, Grace Koontz, Catherine Liles, Mildred Massey, Betsy Durland, Lucille Moore, Thelma Moss, James Whitely, Emma Dix, Stewart Payne, Ruth Penny, Jester Pierce, Annie Robbins, Frank Robbins, Reid Shelton, Hazel Shipman, Mary E. Adams, George Antonakos.

Guilford College

Bera Brown, Grace Bulla, Irene Davis, Pauline Lightfoot.

N. C. C. W.

Annie Boswell, Iris Welborn.
State
John Clinard, E. W. Freeze, Jr., Clyde Loman, Eccles Scott, Ollie Shelton.

Flora MacDonald

Margaret Compton, Helen Reich.

Catawba

James Whitener, Margaret Whitener, Olivia Loving.

Duke University

Parrish Clodfelter.

U. of South Carolina

John Douglas,

Meredith College

Elizabeth Stephens.

Wake Forest

Gay Hensley.

Oak Ridge Institute

W. C. Phillips.

Lenoir-Rhyne

Emma Fritz.

Salem College

Louise Salisbury, Elizabeth Pickett, Julia Marsh, Eleanor Idol, Elizabeth Reitzel.

Virginia State Teachers College

Nancy Pearl Welborn.

Business Course

Pauline Binkley, Marion Black, Lois Burton, Lena Grissom, Hazel Haines, Edith Millikan, Nell McGhee.

H. S. SOPHOMORE BREAKS HIS LEG AT FOOTBALL PRACTICE

Carlton Hooks, a sophomore, had the misfortune to suffer a broken leg in football practice on the school field, Monday, September 17th. Hooks, although weighing only 105 pounds, had been out for practice all the season, and had been persistent in his efforts to make good. He had only begun to take part in the scrimmage Monday when he was hurt. Aid was given him by the coaches, and other players, and he was rushed to the High Point Hospital where he received treatment.

Mr. Marlette expressed keenest regret at the unfortunate accident. This is the first one of a serious nature, however, that has befallen the local team in several years.