

POINTERS DOWN THREE STRONG TEAMS

BLACK BISON DEFEAT THE WINSTON BASKETBALL TEAM IN A CLOSE GAME

Coach Marlette's basketeers took a hard fought game from Winston Friday night by a 28 to 23 score. The game was close all the way through with neither team being able to get very far ahead. In the first half Winston played a fast game, with a swift passing attack and guarding that left them in the lead at the end of the first half by 16 to 14.

The Black Bisons came back in the last half and outplayed the Winston quintet to win by a 28 to 23 score. Kearns played a stellar game at left guard and scored five points. Willard and Johnson were high scorers for High Point, Willard making ten and Johnson scoring nine. Weaver, Winston's star center, played a flashy game, scoring eight of Winston's points.

LOCAL TOSSERS DEFEAT STRONG REIDSVILLE TEAM

Locals Take Lead Early in the Game—Startle Reidsville With Speed and Accurate Shooting

The girls' basketball team added another victory Friday night by defeating the strong Reidsville team by the score of 44 to 20. The game was one of the best games seen here this year, being marred only by frequent fouls. Both teams went into the game with the determination to take home a victory, and consequently it was a very hard fought game. The excellent passing and accurate shooting of the High Pointers startled the visitors from the start, and at no time were they in danger. At the end of the first half High Point was leading by the score of 28 to 14. The Reidsville lassies came back in the second half determined to take the game. The locals retained their fighting spirit and it was hard for the visitors to get the ball in their territory. The local guards played a good defensive game and the forwards had no trouble in finding the basket. The Reidsville girls displayed good teamwork; however, they could not equal the locals in either speed or shooting. Maud Hamil was the star forward for High Point. She made a total

LOWER CLASSES PLAY CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES

MISS WILSON IS COACH

Sophomores and Freshmen Will Meet After Elimination Contests to Decide Winner

Miss Beverly Wilson, girls' physical educational director, at present has her gym classes in the midst of an exciting series of basketball games. Five classes of sophomore girls are playing in the race for sophomore championship. As soon as this is decided, the five freshman classes will play off the freshman championship. And then will come the exciting time for the two classes, for the champions will meet in a contest to decide which is the better as far as basketball goes.

The games are being played in the gymnasium each afternoon after school, and have created quite a bit of interest among the students and others who have witnessed them.

WRESTLERS IN GOOD SHAPE FOR TUSSLE

Match With Winston Arranged To Take Place Soon After Exams

The wrestling team is rapidly getting ready for their first tussle of the season. A good number of boys have turned out for practice, and Coach Ellington is getting everything in shape for the 1929 season.

This is the first year High Point high school has ever had a wrestling team, a sport that is becoming more popular every year. A match is already being arranged with Winston-Salem that will probably take place the first week after exams. Prospects look bright for a successful season and wrestling is likely to become one of the leading sports here.

NOTABLE CHEMIST TALKS TO RETORT CLUB MEMBERS

CLUB NOTES

French I
L'Alliance Francais met Tuesday morning in room 203. For the program, Anita Kerr took the club on a trip through France. She told something about the customs of the people and also about the most important cities of the country.

Latin Club
At the regular meeting of the Latin club Tuesday morning, Miss Barker read a Latin letter, which concerned the Roman side of the Crucifixion. Several club members read articles on Roman dress and jewelry.

Radio Club
Some of the unusual phases of radio science were discussed in the meeting of the Marconi radio club. The antenna, the condenser, and the reason for a vacuum in a radio were some of the subjects taken up. The club already has a five-tube set to experiment with. This set was brought by Kent Douglas. The members will take it apart and then reconstruct it. They expect to get programs from near and far.

Junior and Senior Dramatic Clubs

The senior and junior dramatic clubs held a joint meeting on club day. Mr. T. Wingate Andrews was the guest of the club at this time and spoke to the members. His subject was the "Opera." He told something about the history of opera and then took up in particular "Aida" and "Rigoletto." Several selections from these operas were played on the victrola.

Mr. Marshall, senior club advisor, made an announcement about the one-act plays which will be given here by the club soon.

Margaret Hedrick, president of the junior dramatic club, presided over the meeting.

Art Club
The members of the Art club have been invited to visit the studio of Mr. Louis Voorhees in Emerywood. At the last meeting plans for taking advantage of the invitation were discussed. Miss Carrie Smith acted as advisor in the absence of Mrs. Baylor.

Edison Science Club
An old-fashioned spelling match was conducted in the Edison Science club Tuesday morning. The captains were Robert Barnes and Helen Stewart. The very closely contested match was finally ended by Evelyn Paplin's defeating Helen Stewart on the word "nebula." Billy Foster was appointed permanent reporter for THE POINTER.

Scribblers Club
During the meeting of the Scribblers club Tuesday morning, original poems were read by several of the members. Afterwards the club studied the form of verse under the supervision of Miss Bulwinkle. Sally Baynes explained to a new student the purpose of the club and mentioned what the members had been doing in the past. The devotional exercises were conducted by Frances McCrary.

Senior French Club
During the meeting of the Senior French club a discussion was held concerning the purchase of a club pin. Each member will take the matter into consideration between the last and the next meeting and then the decision will be made. Miss Harris read an interesting story entitled "The Man Who Married a Dumb Wife." This story was written by Anatole France who was a great French writer. The play which was to be given was postponed until the next meeting.

Travelers Club
Miss Lindsay spoke to the members of the Travelers Club of her trip to Switzerland. She narrated several experiences and described all noted cities and resorts which were visited. Afterward Mildred Burton read the story of two boys who scaled Matterhorn, a peak of the Alps.

Home Nursing Club
"Causes and Prevention of Sickness" was the topic discussed by the Home Nursing club Tuesday morning. Reports were as follows:
1. Communicable and non-com-

- municable—Mrs. Reese.
- 2. Measles—Margaret Underwood.
- 3. Colds and pneumonia—Elong Long.
- 4. Whooping cough—Elizabeth Carter.
- 5. Tuberculosis—Frieda Rucker.
- 6. How to live long—Edith Slack.

The officers of the club are president, Violet Weaver; vice president, Eleanor Blair; secretary and treasurer, Muriel Gomo; reporter, Lucille Lopp.

Junior Hi-Y
All the new members of the Junior Hi-Y were welcomed by speeches from Mr. Johnston and Winford Hinkle. A discussion was held as to when initiation would be given to the new members. Thursday night, January 31, was selected. A committee was appointed to be in charge of the next meeting.

Sophomore Girl Reserves
Jane Hess Weaver had charge of the devotional exercises of the Sophomore Girl Reserves Tuesday morning. After this the members sang a song. Several members discussed the different phases of the Girl Reserves club.

Senior Hi-Y
"Develop Squarely" was the subject of the meeting of the Senior Hi-Y Thursday, January 17. Carl Jones read the scripture lesson. Alfred Moffitt, Fred Ingram, and Carl Jones made short talks on the subject. These talks were based on the verse: "The child grew in wisdom, and stature and in favor with God and man." which shows that Christ developed in four ways, therefore squarely. They said that everyone should develop four ways instead of the usual overdevelopment in one way. A discussion was held on the subject and each member gave an incident in his life or some illustration showing square development.

Senior Girl Reserves
"How to Grow Beautiful" was the subject of the Senior Girl Reserves club Tuesday morning. The following recipes were given: Health—Caroline Broughton; Beautiful Speech—Margaret Neese; Cheerfulness—Elizabeth Ragan; Charm—Pauline Haynes. Elizabeth James described a joy-maker. A dialogue was given by Virginia Hunt pertaining to what a lady gained by being charming.
