

START SAVING FOR THE SENIOR PLAY

The Pointer

FIVE MORE WEEKS
TO GO

PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY BY THE HIGH POINT HIGH SCHOOL

VOL. XIII, No. 29

High Point, N. C., Wednesday, May 1, 1929

Five Cents a Copy

SCHOOL ART CONTEST IS BEING SPONSORED BY THE WOMAN'S CLUB

Art Exhibition Will Be Held May 22, 23 and 24; Five-Dollar Gold Piece Will Be Given Each Winner.

An art contest for the city schools is being conducted by the Woman's Club of the city. The contest began Thursday, April 25, and will close May 22. A five-dollar gold piece will be given the winner from each of the city schools. Mrs. Baylor is in charge of the high school contest.

At the close of the contest there will be an exhibition of the contesting drawings. The place of the exhibition has not yet been decided, but Mrs. Baylor states that it would probably be in a vacant store on Main Street.

All the work must be original. Paintings, drawings, works in clay, and carved figures are acceptable. The name and address of the contestant must be printed clearly on the work. The contest will be judged by three artists. They have not been chosen yet. Mrs. Baylor announced that they would not however, be connected with the city schools.

JUNIORS MAKE READY FOR ANNUAL RECEPTION

Officers of Third-Year Class Extremely Busy in Preparations for Yearly Social Event of School.

"Shell out, worthy juniors!" has been the motto of the junior class's treasurer, Joseph Vaughn, for the last three weeks. The reason? On the evening of May 3, 1929, there will be "pulled off" the outstanding social event of the school year, the junior-senior reception. For this reason chairmen of all committees and their cohorts are bending every nerve and muscle in the endeavor to make it a memorable night for all concerned.

Home room treasurers move around with clinking pockets. Perceiving Joseph Vaughn, they corner him and force handfuls of "dough" upon him, muttering names of certain juniors. The Hon. Joe has a worried, responsible look, reminding one of the man who caught a bear by the tail and could not decide on his next move. By these portents, observant seniors may draw their own conclusions as to what is in store for them.

MANY NATURE EXHIBITS DISPLAYED IN LIBRARY

Keynote of Spring Is Seen In All Pictures and Articles Now Displayed; Bird Pictures Also Shown.

Spring. Spring is certainly in the air, especially in the library. Every bit of exhibit, every article on the bulletin boards, and every picture has as its keynote the beginning of spring.

In the main exhibit case in the center of the library, Donald Wood has lent an exhibit of pictures of birds. There are fifteen of these pictures, all beautifully colored, and of a large convenient size. The birds illustrated in the show case are the woodcock, quail, green-winged teal, ruffed grouse partridge, Mallard duck, spruce grouse, greater yellow legs, male wood-

(Continued on Page 3)

SENIORS WORKING ON THEIR ANNUAL PLAY

The reports are that work on "Oh, Kay," the annual senior which will be presented May 10, is progressing rapidly. Practices are held every day under the direction of Mr. L. L. Stookey.

Some unusually good acting is expected from the cast as the play is one that affords unlimited opportunities for good amateur characterizations, and practically all of the leading members of the cast have in school productions before this year and have had considerable experience in that line.

The cast is as follows: Gramp, Woodrow Brooks; Jim Hayes, Robert Hubbard; Evelyn Whitman, Mary Elizabeth Harllee; Edith Whitman, Virginia Duffee; Kay, Dot Rankin; Gram, Marion Shipman; Art, Robert Davis; George, Ralto Farlowe; Fred, Carl Gibson; The Captain, David Parsons; Alice Bordon, Grace Walsler.

Tickets will be sold by the members of the senior class and the proceeds of the play will go towards the gift from the class to the school. Further announcements will be made next week.

SOPHOMORE STUDENT COUNCIL MEMBERS ARE CHOSEN FOR NEXT YEAR

Jane Hess Weaver and Walton McNairy Will Be Junior Representatives for 1929-30.

Jane Hess Weaver and Walton McNairy have been elected by the sophomore class to act as representatives from the junior class on the student council for next year. The election was held at the monthly meeting of the class, Wednesday morning, in the auditorium. Those who were nominated by the nominating committee were as follows: Jane Hess Weaver, Emma Carr Bivins, Walton McNairy, and Frank Sizemore. The following were nominated from the floor: for the boys, Gatewood Shipman, Paul Burkhardt, Albert Pruitt, Elbert Culler. For the girls: Dorothy Fritz, Kate Workman, Frances Einstein and Ruth Gross. A discussion was held before the votes were taken.

VARIETY OF PROGRAMS GIVEN IN HOME ROOMS

314 Has Spelling Match Wednesday Morning; Mr. Andrews Talks on Debating.

Many different types of programs were given in the home rooms last week. One unusual program presented in room 314 consisted of a spelling match. The words has been collected from the textbooks the previous week, and were posted on the bulletin board two days before the match was held.

In several rooms programs were given dealing with famous paintings. Miss Smith's gave her room a talk on pictures. She also explained the correct method of hanging pictures.

Several rooms have enjoyed unusual radio programs.

In room 311 Mr. Andrews told the students many interesting facts about debating. He stressed the importance of debating as a method of bringing one's thoughts together.

Live and learn.

PROFESSOR JOHN PAUL WEAVER

U. N. C. GLEE CLUB TO GIVE CONCERT MAY 4

Appearance to be Under Auspices of High School Music Department and the Musical Art Club.

The University of North Carolina Glee Club will appear at High Point high school in a concert Saturday night, May 4, at 8 o'clock. The music department of the high school, and the musical art club of the city are sponsors for the concert. The admission for school students will be 50 cents.

"This is one of the most outstanding musical events of the year," stated L. L. Stookey, head of the music department here, "and I am very desirous of having a large and appreciative audience."

Professor John Paul Weaver is director of the Glee Club. Prof. Weaver joined the university faculty nine years ago as head of the department of music. He took over the direction of the glee club five years later and immediately set about to organize a program consisting entirely of the highest type of choral music. None of his predecessors had ever dared to

(Continued on Page 4)

PROGRAM FOR BOYS' WEEK

Monday, April 29—Ministers speak in various schools at assembly period.

Tuesday, April 30—Boys' and Girls' Day in athletics. At 3:30 p.m. the high school freshmen and junior high school will engage in their annual track and field classics on the high school athletic field. The girls of the two schools will have a volley ball game.

Wednesday, May 1—Winners of the northern and southern districts will play baseball to settle championship. Elm Street school will compete with the winner of Emma Blair-Grimes Street winner on Jones Street diamond.

Thursday, May 2—Prof. L. R. Johnston appointed several members of his senior class to act as city officials on Thursday.

Friday, May 3—Open house meeting at the Y. M. C. A. on Friday night at 8:00. Fathers and sons are invited.

Saturday, May 4—Fathers and sons will visit Camp Uwharrie on Saturday afternoon. An interesting program has been planned: a volley ball game, a baseball game between sons and fathers, picnic lunch, and a closing vesper service.

Sunday, May 5—Members of the Junior Hi-Y of the high school have been asked to speak at the various churches.

RESULTS OF THE FLAG CONTEST MADE PUBLIC

Second Elimination Will Be Held In Week of May 8. School Winners to Receive Medals.

According to an announcement made this week by Miss Elizabeth Lindsay, who is in charge of the local division of the national flag contest, the following have been chosen to compete in the elimination contest to be held: Frances Douglas, Anna Gertrude Douglas, Rose Askew, Burgess Leonard and Buster Moffitt. This decision was reached by the judges after they had examined the papers, including essays and questions, of all the entrants.

The above named winners are to memorize their essays and deliver them here some time during the week beginning May 8. The two winners, one a boy and one a girl will each be awarded a medal. They will also compete in the regional contest to be held at a later date.

Each of the papers that were submitted to the judges averaged above 95. The judges were: for the girls: Misses Bulwinkle, Morton and Meador; for the boys: Mr. Patrick and Mr. Owens.

DUAL DEBATERS READY FOR FRIDAY COMBAT WITH GATE CITY TEAM

Six High Point Speakers Finish Work on Arguments; Query Concerns War Debts; To Be Given Before Students.

All is in readiness for the dual debate to be held Friday morning at the chapel period between Greensboro and High Point. The six speakers representing the rival schools will argue the question of whether or not the United States should cancel the war debts owed to her by the allies. The local affirmative side will be represented by Eloise Best, Mabel Koontz, and Margaret Andrews. They will speak here while the negative debaters, Mayna Allen, Frances Douglas and Ralto Farlowe, will journey to Greensboro to meet the Gate City affirmative there.

Due to the limited amount of time, the speeches will be as follows: twenty-four minutes for each team, six each for the main speeches and six for the rebuttal. There will be only one speaker on each side's rebuttal.

The dual debate is at this time being initiated into the debate calendar of the school, and it will probably rank in importance second only to the regular triangle debates, according to the schools' debating officials.

Travelers' Club Picnics

The Travelers' Club had an enjoyable picnic out at the Medical Lake Park on the Winston road Thursday afternoon after school. Although the ground was damp and heavy clouds threatened rain, the members said they enjoyed the outing none the less. Misses Lindsay and Clinard, assisted by Mrs. George T. Stephens, prepared the lunches brought by the club members. "Weenies" were roasted and served with slaw, mustard and pickles. In addition the menu provided sandwiches, cake, bananas, deviled eggs, fruit and punch. After as well as preceding the lunch, several members of the party waded in the stream. Each member of the club was asked to invite one guest for the occasion.

MISS MATSON SPEAKS TO GIRLS AT MEETING HERE LAST MONDAY

"Springtime" Is Subject of Bi-Monthly Assembly Program; Dot Franklin Sings.

At the girls' meeting on Monday morning, April 23, Miss Vivian Matson, the local Y. W. C. A. secretary, spoke to the girls on "Girlhood and Springtime." She compared the youth of girls to the budding of flowers and trees. "Springtime is like girls who are happy in their hearts," said Miss Matson. She brought out the point that spring is not only a time of beauty but of power, also; that youth possessed power. In closing, the speaker quoted this poem:

Glad that I live and
That the sky is blue,
Glad for the country land
And the fall of dew;
After the sun the rain,
After the rain the sun,
This is the way of life,
Till our work be done.

The subject of the entire program was "Springtime." The devotional was led by Nancy Myatt. Mr. Stookey led the girls in a group of spring songs. A talk "A Girl's Appreciation of Spring" was made by Annie Laurie Patterson. Then Dorothy Franklin rendered a vocal solo, "Down in the Front," by Ronald. Just before the visitor of the morning spoke, Velva Hayden gave a dance, "The Spirit of Spring." She was dressed to represent the spirit of the dance.

TOP RANKS REACHED BY "BRAINY" STUDENTS

Juniors, Sophomores and Freshmen Run Neck and Neck in Number Who Attain Honor Roll.

Report day has come and went, but it has not been did by accident! A statistic-hound, ordinarily a harmless staff reporter, pounced with avidity on the chance to distinguish himself by analyzing the honor roll, strewing with a liberal hand percent marks, decimals, and columns of figures. Being generous, he decided that his results were too interesting to keep to himself, and that his fellow students would appreciate them. Impelled by this motive, he shoved his article into the pile. When the faculty adviser wasn't looking. This happens to be it.

Of the entire student body, slightly over 10 per cent made the honor roll. To be exact, 115 out of a possible 1,085 achieved this distinction. Nineteen were seniors; 32 were juniors; 31 sophs, and 34 freshmen. In percentage, the third group topped the list with 15 1/2 per cent.

(Continued on Page 4)

Music Winners May Appear at Sanford

Girls' Quartet and Flute Solo Requested to Join With Others in Concert There.

That the local winners in the music contest recently held in Greensboro will again appear is probable according to Lewis L. Stookey, who has received a request to that effect from the supervisor of music at Sanford. The Sanford instructor has asked that the girls' quartet and the flute solo appear with other musicians in a concert to be held there on May 6. It has not yet been decided

(Continued on Page 2)