

L' ALLEGRO

Christmas has gone. No more holidays until Easter.

Miss Hege: "Where did the "spoils system" originate?"

John Whitescarver: In the rotten boroughs.

Little boy (speaking of his arithmetic): I'm pretty good in this adding business, but when it comes to the lessening stuff, I'm no good at all.

Judging from the heavy eyelids in school on January 1, the New Year's celebration must have been well attended.

Teacher (solemnly): There's a missing face in this room today. Pupil (looking around room): Whose?

Teacher: The clock's.

Why didn't the men who made the calendar scatter a few more holidays throughout the year?

Poor Mary Jane made a terrible blunder—

She rouged her nose and made it bright;

Then she dabbed her lips with powder white.

What made her do it the people wonder!

She: Why are New Year's resolutions like glass?

He: Because they are easily broken. Ask me another.

BOOKS I WOULD LIKE TO OWN AND WHY

(Continued from Page 3)

8. Count Luckner, the Sea Devil—Lowell Thomas.

Count Von Luckner terrorized the whole of the Pacific Ocean during the four years of the war, yet in that time he did not lose a single member of his crew, nor did he cause the loss of a single Allied life. He ventured out into the Pacific in an old ship, with one cannon mounted in the stern. He captured lighter-armed vessels by a formidable display of arms, and out-manuevered those which were superior to his own. Some of these maneuvers call forth the highest commendation of his skill as a commander, while the many tricks to which he resorted to baffle his enemies are amusing, to say the least. Any account of his adventures would be interesting.

9. The Red Knight of Germany—Floyd Gibbons.

To mention aerial fighting in the World War is to call forth memories of Baron Von Richthofen, the "Red Knight of Germany." His "circus" was feared above all others on the Western Front. They were always to be recognized by the brilliant scarlet noses of their planes. Leading them would be the plane of Baron Von Richthofen. This book tells of the career in the air of this famous flier, and of his death.

10. Bolivar—T. R. Ybarra.

This is the story of Simon Bolivar, who died friendless in a borrowed night-shirt, after having become master of a continent, and having overthrown mighty Spain. Such are the main points of Bolivar's career. He came out of the plains of Venezuela with his bloodthirsty warriors to sweep the country with his desperados. With his motley army he crossed the impassable Andes, duplicating the triumph of Hannibal.

This is a desirable book in more senses than one, for it is a clear graphic account of the life of a little-known but praiseworthy leader.

CANNON-FETZER SCHOOL CLOTHIERS

158 S. Main St.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS HELD IN HOME ROOMS

(Continued from Page 3)

Dorothy Compton; second lieutenants, Rosa Lee Bell, Isabelle Ellison; reporter, Josephine Ferguson; cheerleader, Bessie Hedrick; treasurer, Willis Sensenbach.

208—Captain, Una Blackburn; first lieutenants, Rachel Segraves, Marvin Siquefield; second lieutenants, Cathryn Shell, James Green; cheerleader, Edward Shoaf; reporter, Jewel Thomas; treasurer, James Green.

209—Captain, Howard Vuncannon; lieutenants, Thomas Carpenter; Nor-Pauline Holcombe; second lieutenants, Margaret Hamlin, Charlena Brown; reporter, Jessie Curry; cheerleader, Berta Davis.

210—Captain, Peyton Moffitt; first lieutenants, Thomas Carpenter, Orma Anderson; second lieutenants, Marguerite Neave, Robert Byrum; reporter, Susan Sharp; treasurer, Dwight Barringer.

301—Captain, Ruby Woods; first lieutenants, Mary Louise York, Jack White; second lieutenants, James Petty, Drucilla Majeskie; cheerleader, Wilma Hayworth; reporter, Edgar Welch.

301-A—Captain, Ollie Hutchens; first lieutenants, Ruby Stone, Sara Everhart; second lieutenants, Wilma Rogers, Rae Smith; cheerleader, Luke Ridge; reporter, Katherine Hampton; library reporter, Mattie Blackwell.

302—Captain, Harold Kearns; first lieutenants, Helen Kirkman, Cecil Burton; second lieutenants, James Stewart, Velna Winslow; cheerleader, Vivian Hauser; reporter, Christine Bradley.

302-A—Captain, C. T. Ingram; first lieutenants, Edgar Snider, Maxie Brigman; second lieutenants, M. J. Hicks, Joy Patterson; reporter, Norton Jeffers; cheerleader, Velva Hayden; treasurer, Fair Antonakos.

303—Captain, Jewel Spencer; first lieutenants, W. C. Koontz, Bernese Teague; second lieutenants, Jack Henry, Artis Caudle; cheerleader, Ernestine Asbury; reporter, Olivia Bennett; treasurer, Robert Cook; librarian, Dwight Seckler.

304—Captain, Charles Nance; first lieutenants, Lula Barker, Jim Gianoulis; second lieutenants, John Webber, Annie May Bogan; treasurer, Helen Davis; cheerleader, Bill Horney; reporter, Charlotte O'Beirne; library reporter, Louise Southern.

305—Captain, Nick Antonakos; first lieutenants, Richard Rettew, Robert Kluttz; second lieutenants, Meredith Strickland, Victoria Thomas; cheerleader, Carol McKee; reporter, Victoria Thomas.

306—Captain, Dolan Hedrick; first lieutenants, Helen Stewart, George Cecil; second lieutenants, Katherine Davis, Bernard Hunter; cheerleader, Charles Connor; reporter, Ethel Jones; treasurer, Winfred Robertson.

307—Captain, Nolan Reid; first lieutenants, Hilda Allen, Paul Bulla; second lieutenants, W. L. Stamey, Bill Foister; cheerleader, Ted Thomas.

308—Captain, Harold Hinkle; first lieutenants, Mabel Pike, Milford Byerly; second lieutenants, Paul Ellis, Mildred Ketchie; reporter, Iris Andrews; library reporter, Groome Fulton; cheerleaders, Charles Weisner, Jack Coble, Clara Hollingsworth.

309—Captain, Wesley Morris; first lieutenants, Bill Freeze, Raymond Spain; second lieutenants, Alfred Hedrick, Esker Furr; reporter, Helen Cecil; library reporter, Gladys Kidd; treasurer, Carson Tucker; cheerleader, Louise Evans.

310—Captain, Huber Moore; first lieutenants, Helen Jones, Leon Thompson; second lieutenants, Mary Frances Parker, Barbara Winslow; cheerleaders, Julia Willard, O. R. York, Jr.; reporter, Mabel Koontz.

Good Food Good Service Pleasant Atmosphere

The Three Essentials of a Good Restaurant Are All Featured at

THE FRIENDLY CAFETERIA

132 South Main Street

HIGH POINTS

The illness of Miss Virginia Frank prevented her return from Charleston, S. C., where she spent the holidays, until January 8.

Margaret Spenser, a former member of the class of 1930, who now lives in Danville, Va., was a visitor at school on last Tuesday.

Margaret Smith, a student of N. C. C. W., was the luncheon guest of Mary Holley on Tuesday.

Everyone will be glad to learn that little Sarah Gilbert King, mascot of the class of 1929, who was struck by an automobile near her home, was not seriously injured.

The dazzling lights of New York attracted both Miss Graham and Junior Jackson to that city for the Christmas holidays. Mr. Sloan and Albert Boynton, on the other hand, sought the balmy climate of Florida.

Mr. Alston motored to Georgia and back on forty gallons of gas.

Christopher, Catherine, and Mary Eve have left High Point and are now living at their former home at Beaufort, S. C.

Margaret Jones, after an absence of several weeks on account of illness, is now in school again.

311—Captain, Douglas Whitley; first lieutenants, Helen Davis, Billy Ferree; second lieutenants, Esther Murphey, Hazel Davis; cheerleader, David McKinnon; reporter, Paul Carroll; treasurer, Joe Watkin.

312—Captain, George Hayworth; first lieutenants, Homer Tate, Delton Coble; second lieutenants, Irene Sparks, Margaret McLeod; cheerleader, Paul Clapp.

313—Captain, Robert Barrier; first lieutenants, Heroneda Ketchie, Sadye Gordon; second lieutenants, Ruth Briles, George ... cheerleader, David ... reporter, Margaret Underwood.

314—Captain, Albert McAnally; first lieutenants, Jacklyn McMullan, Margaret Sears; second lieutenants, Roscoe Burchfield, William Shillington; secretary and treasurer, Irvin Coffield; cheerleader, George Barbee; reporter, John Gurney Briggs; library reporter, Charles Holly.

315—Captain, Craig Furr; first lieutenants, Shirley West, Irene Plummer; second lieutenants, John Huff, James Montgomery; treasurer, Dorothy Fritz; cheerleader, Burton Wagger; reporter, Albert Pruitt; library reporter, Lois Stout.

316—Captain, Alma Virginia McCain; first lieutenants, Collier Ellis, Evans Truesdale; second lieutenants, George Armfield, Ruth Mengel.

Prescriptions Soda Candy

PHONE 369

CECIL'S DRUG STORE

"ONLY THE BEST"

Opposite Wachovia Bank

BEAVANS

The Ladies Store

ALWAYS WELCOME

N. E. RUSSELL

SHOE REPAIR SHOP AND SHINE PARLOR

104 South Main Street

Dr. Nat Walker

OPTOMETRIST

Over Hart Drug Co.

Next to Post Office

High Point, N. C.

EFIRD'S DEPT. STORE

Complete Line of High School Apparel

Triangular Debate Query is Selected

The most important triangular debate of the year will take place sometime in the early spring between High Point, Winston-Salem, and Greensboro. The query for the debate is: Resolved, that North Carolina should adopt the proposed constitutional amendment, authorizing the classification of property for taxation.

Any high school student is eligible for participation in the preliminaries. Mr. Andrews, the debating coach, says that he hopes a large number of students will try out.

Under the auspices of the Oratio Club, a debate has been arranged with Salisbury on the same subject that was discussed by the Greensboro and High Point teams in the fall. The same debaters will represent High Point, but this time, the negative team will remain here and the High Point affirmative team will go to Salisbury.

HARVEY CURLEE IS HONORED BY OLDER BOYS' CONFERENCE

(Continued from Page 1)

ditorium and elected officers for next year. These officers were:

President—Guy Hope, Greensboro. Vic-President — Harvey Curlee, High Point.

Secretary-Treasurer—Fred Thompson, Concord.

On Saturday afternoon the boys had a movie, after which they were free for the afternoon. At the banquet that night, after the visitors were introduced, the delegates were introduced by cities. Mr. Roberts of New York spoke.

On Sunday morning, Mr. Roberts spoke again, after which the boys went to church. They left for High Point about 3 o'clock.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY MEETS

(Continued from Page 1)

The high school history department head also enjoyed a report on the "Industrial Revolution of the Twentieth Century" by W. E. Lingleback of Pennsylvania University. The speaker humorously mentioned that the McCormack reaper "find no place when "pill farming" grows in importance. This method of farming will consist of raising food plants and flowers in chemical laboratories.

The speaker also predicted that within the next few generations individuals will take synthetic food in capsules.

Because of the unusually mild weather which prevailed during the three days of the conference the northern delegates gained a fine impression of the sunny Southern climate.

New Honor Society Members Wear Pins

The eleven new members taken into the National Honor Society this fall are now proudly wearing their club pins. These pins are in the shape of a key stone with the lighted torch of knowledge emblazoned upon it. The letters, C, S, L, S are grouped around the torch. These letters stand for the qualities that the members who wear this pin must possess, the qualities of Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service. The words "The National Honor Society" are placed across the top of the pin.

Each new member who is admitted into this society receives a pin as symbol of his membership. The members all agree that the pin is an inspiration to them and an aid in maintaining a high standard in their school life.

WINS FIRST PLACE IN BROADHURST CONTEST

(Continued from Page 1)

othy Forward, third winner, holds one of the highest scholas records in the junior class.

The remaining contestants are seniors, with the exception of Burt Asbury, and they are all good students.

"High school students are my weakness," said Mr. Smart of the Broadhurst theatre. "I shall be glad to offer more prizes for high school French students if the teachers would like. I wish that I could give each of them a prize."

"The translations were uniformly excellent. There was little difference among the best papers. Those who did not win lost by mere oversights. These letters were judged by the original translation."

In conclusion Mr. Smart said, "I truly appreciate the interest which the students took in this contest. Not a single poor paper was handed in. They must have had some excellent teachers and training."

THE COMMERCIAL NATIONAL BANK

Capital and Surplus $2,000,000.00

J. Elwood Cox, President
C. M. Hauser, Vice-President
V. A. J. Idol, V-P. & Trust Officer
C. H. Mariner, Cashier
J. W. Hiatt, Assistant Cashier
E. B. Steed, Assistant Cashier
W. T. Saunders, Assistant Cashier

Sunshine Laundry

Have You Tried Sunshine's Genuine Dry Cleaning Yet?

For All Things of Silk or Wool—it Has No Equal

PHONE 3393

J. W. Sechrest & Son

LUMBER—MILLWORK

BUILDING MATERIALS

BUILDERS HARDWARE

SNOW LUMBER COMPANY

Established 1880