AVON PLAYERS PRESENT TAMING OF THE SHREW AND ROMEO AND JULIET

Famous Actors Perform Afternoon, Night Nov. 7; Come Under Auspices of English Dept.

The Avon Players, a company of 15 professional actors, are to present two plays in High Point on November 7, 1938.

The two plays to be presented are "The Taming of the Shrew" and "Romeo and Juliet." These plays, sponsored by the English Department of the High School will be given one, "The Taming of Shrew" in the afternoon at 1:30 and "Romeo and Juliet" at evening.

These plays are under the capable direction of Joseph Selman. The company, which is from Nashville, Tenn., presented two plays here last year. They were "The Merchant of Venice" and "Othello." These were greatly enjoyed by all who viewed them. The actors were well-cast and were very suitably costumed.

It is indeed a great pleasure and opportunity to have these actors present the two well-known Shakespearian plays. They deserve our cooperation.

Room To Room By Your Reporters

Interesting things in 314: H. W. studying. Carl Hinson calling James Farley a politician. G. G. not laughing. Doris S. not speaking before thinking.

What! No used posters strewn around advertising candidates for senior officers?

Observed in 209: Impersonations of Gene Krupa coming from Jack S. Don W. thinking that there is always a good show at the Carolina. Because he works there?

Hope Roy Highfill doesn't let that chameleon, which he has, get loose around here. So creepy to the touch!

Room 208's famous poet, B. H. Classy expressions.

201 is having an attendance contest between the boys and girls. Girls are winning. Losers have to entertain winners.

A student of 309 when asked for four examples of personal monopolies replied, "Mr. Smith."

Room 207 is striving to be the first room to go 100% for the Pointer.

Room 201-A has a teacher-doesn't-know-about-it club called the "Glorious Get-Together"

DAVES PRESIDENT ORCH. CLUB FOR SCHOOL YEAR

Officers for the orchestra for this year have been elected.

Mary Helen Daves was elected president; Clark Wilson, Annie Lee Hicks, and Edward Knight, stage managers; Serena Moore Riser, publicity chairman; Vernon Bost, string librarian.

The orchestra has twenty-five members. Miss Virginia Frank is directing the orchestra. Miss Frank said it is the plans of the orchestra to enter the state musical contest this year.

KATHERINE

Miss Murial Gallick who appears in "The Taming of the Shrew."

Saunders Heads Dramatic Club

Activities Already Under Way In Dramatic Club.

Betsy Saunders was re-elected president of the High Point high school Dramatic Club for the present school year at its initial meeting on September 29.

The other elected officers are: vice-president, James Wilson; secretary, Kermit Albertson; treasurer, Roger Taylor; program chairman, Eloise Rankin; Pointer representative, Geneva Crowder; scrap book chairman, Anne Marie Miffitt.

A play, "The Black Lamb," was presented to prospective members on October 18. The cast included Charles Ivey, Josephine Deal, Caroline Pork, Charles Brockman, Chanice Tabor, Anne-Marie Moffitt, James Wilson, N. L. Garner, Barbara Matthews, and Roy Briggs. The play was directed by Betsy Saunders and Eloise Rankin. Mrs. Keith Harrison, head of dramatics at Junior High, was the guest.

The next meeting will be held (Continued on Page Four)

Book-Magazine Order Is Placed

Three hundred books have been ordered for the High School library by Miss Capel, librarian.

When the books will arrive and be ready for service can not be definitely stated, Miss Capel said.

Of the three hundred books, one hundred books will be of the following types: historical, sports, mystery and other types of fiction.

The other two hundred include the arts of painting, sketching, and woodwork; the science of math, radio, plants, and animals; the other classifications are American humor, hobbies, careers, sports, and biography.

"At the present time the library has approximately 45 various magazines. Five magazines will probably be added to this number. They are: "American Forest," "Building America," "English Journal," "American Literature," and "School Activities."

RADIO CLUB PROGRAM THURSDAYS ON WMFR

Students Originate and Sponsor Various Radio Programs

The Radio Club of Senior High School has already got underway for its 1938-39 Activities.

The entire membership of the club is divided into groups and each group has the opportunity of presenting a program. Each separate group has the opportunity of broadcasting every four weeks. The broadcasts take place on Thursdays, over station WMFR at 7:15 and the programs vary from Scientific and Educational ones to humorous ones.

The Radio Club was organized in 1937 during the second semester of that year. At the first meeting approximately thirty persons reported. The membership of the club is largely comprised of those who first joined the club.

The purpose of the club is to help those who are interested, to learn to put expression in their parts, to overcome the fear of talking to audiences, and to appreciate and understand the announcing of others. Emphasis, enunciation, and clarity are essentials in every phase of dramatics.

An audience enjoys the program which seems to be alive with naturalness rather than the one (Continued on Page Four)

THAT'S GOING SOME IN ANY MAN'S SCHOOL

Fifteen persons made all "A's" during the past grade period. These students are to be congratulated and encouraged. The Pointer feels that their academic work has been what should be a goal for us all.

Those making all "A's" are: Seniors—Virginia May Ennis; Juniors—Mabel McMurray, Barbara Bradley, Ella Lou Taylor, Rachel Conrad, Betsy Yow, Juanita Thayer, Marie Workman; Sophomores—Antilee Dinking, Mary Jo Wilson, Arthur Kaplan, Gloria Ilderton, Peggy Teague, Joe Given, and Ruth Culler.

To the two boys who have made all "A's", once again we should like to say, "Congratulations."

STATE STUDENT CONGRESS TO MEET IN KANNAPOLIS

Thursday and Friday of next week, the State Student Council Congress will meet in Kannapolis, N. C.

Roger Taylor, President of the Council, will preside at the meeting.

A very interesting program has been planned for the delegates, including a banquet and a dance in Salisbury Thursday night. There will be several outstanding speakers, among them Mrs. Clyde R. Milner.

Three official delegates from the High School Student Council were selected to attend the meeting. They are Kathryn Allen, Akers Hutchens, and Josephine Deal. Miss Hunter, faculty advisor, will accompany the delegates to Kannapolis.

RANKIN VICE-PRESIDENT; ALBERTSON AND YORK OTHER CLASS OFFICERS

Concert Tonight

Marjorie Edwards, fifteen-year-old child prodigy will open the Cooperative Concert series tonight in the Junior High School auditorium.

Miss Edwards was born in California. Last year she made her New York debut at Town Hall. Since that time she has been on tours throughout the United States.

Mr. Arthur Hollander will accompany her on the piano.

The program tonight marks the first in a series of the fall concerts to be presented in High Point. Programs of the cooperative concert are selected for and known for their highly artistic and entertaining qualities.

Sechrest Leads Honor Society

Club Sells Christmas Cards As Yearly Projects.

Darrell Sechrest was elected president of the Honor Society in the second meeting this year.

The other officers elected were, vice-president, James Wilson; secretary, Mary Holton; treasurer, Eloise Rankin.

For several years the Honor Society has sponsored annually a project designed to benefit the school. During the school year 1936-37 they carried on an extensive paper campaign, the money derived from this helping greatly toward buying the movie camera.

This year they are selling Christmas cards. One shipment has already been sold and is being delivered. Another shipment has been ordered and is expected soon. The campaign will continue until a short time before Christmas.

Mrs. Rogers is faculty adviser of the Honor Society this year. At the present time, there are six members of the society.

Chapel Programs Planned For Year

Many varied and interesting Chapel programs have been planned by different groups under the direction of Miss Louise Hunter.

Friday morning, October 26, Miss Goodman is presenting a play to the sophomores which may be carried over until Monday for the Juniors and the Seniors.

The following is a partial list of the programs that have been planned for the student body:

November 4—Girl Reserves, Miss Johnson and Love; November 11—Armistice, Rev. T. A. Sykes; November 18—Thanksgiving, Miss Burrus and Mrs. Gladstone.

December 2—National Honor Society, Mrs. Rogers; December 9—Awarding of Letters, Mr. Simeon; December 16—Christmas, Misses Bulwinkle and A. Mendenhall.

First Girl in Many Years to Hold Office; Election Came After Week of Vigorous Campaigning.

Josephine Deal was elected president of the senior class for the year 1938-39, yesterday morning.

She led Darrell Sechrest by the majority of 65 votes. Eloise Rankin was elected vice-president; Kermit Albertson, secretary-treasurer; and Caroline York was elected Senior Class Cheer leader.

After vigorous campaigning over a period of ten days, and climaxed by a meeting in chapel Thursday morning, Josephine Deal was elected as President of the senior class. This is the first time in a decade that a girl has been elected president of the senior class.

Josephine Deal was elected as senior class representative to the Student Council for the current school year. She has been outstanding in dramatics for the (Continued on Page Four)
