Oral Book Reports Acclaimed Success

Oral fiction book reports, being sponsored in Mrs. Ruth Carter's English classes are meeting with great success.

Attempting to get away from long, written book reports, Mrs. Ruth Carter is conducting oral reports on all fiction books. Instead of writing a summary of the chosen reading, the students are now required to give a three-minute talk on their book. This verbal discussion is also accompanied by a constructive project. These projects range from posters and paintings to carvings, booklets and miniature newspapers.

Mrs. Carter states that this new venture has met with great success, pointing out that most English students would prefer this type of work to a regular written theme on the book. Samples of the splendid work accomplished by these students may be seen in the library where it is now on display.

For replacing old and worn dictionaries in the English Classes new dictionaries have beneddlur chased by the school.

The dictionaries recently received were the Macmillan Modern Dictionary, the Webster Student Dictionary and the Winston Simplified Dictionary.

Students Prepare League Nations Examination

Three contestants are making preparations for the annual League of Nations' examination which will take place sometime in April, the date to be announced later.

For the past weeks, the following students have been taking part in a special class, the purpose of which is preparation for the contest. They are: Kathryn Allen, Amy Lou Holmes, and Akers Hutchens.

The purpose of the examination is to further students' interests in the different peace organizations of the world and their methods. The League of Nations is the most important of these organizations.

The student in the United States submitting the best paper will be given an all-expense trip to Europe as first prize. The second prize will be $25. There will be 25 additional prizes of $5 each.

Miss Mae Meador, head of the Social Science Department, supervises this group and has been coaching the afternoon class.

Immortal Story To Show Here

Robert Louis Stevenson's immortal story, "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," will come to life when it is portrayed on the screen here next Wednesday and Thursday.

"Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" is a story of a doctor who discovers a certain fluid that when drunk makes the drinker a horrid monster. After some time the medicine will wear off. Dr. Jekyll when he drinks this drug turns into Mr. Hyde, as cruel and sinister person. The picture is packed full of thrills and chills and makes enjoyable entertainment.

A list of All-Star characters includes Frederic March and Miriam Hopkins. This is a Paramount picture.

Mr. Thomas Baldwin, who is in charge of the moving picture program is securing for the student's enjoyment this year the following pictures: "Border Flight," with John Howard and Frances Farmer; "So Red the Rose," with Margaret Sullivan and Randolph Scott; "Mississippi" with an all-star cast including Bing Crosby and W. C. Fields; and "Lives of a Bengal Lancer," with Gary Cooper and Franchot Tone.

Picture and Talk Given Yesterday

Lieutenant Richard F. Rea of the United States Coast guard offered a talk supplemented by a moving picture on the activities and functions of that division of the United States military units Thursday morning in the auditorium.

Lieutenant Rea showed pictures depicting the life of the men in the Coast Guard and illustrated the work done daily by this unit. Afterwards he delivered a short lecture on the functions of the department.

'Hedge Sparrows' To Be Presented This Afternoon

This afternoon between two thirty and three o'clock the English Department will present a one act play over station WMFR. The play is entitled "Hedge Sparrows."

The members of the cast are: Josephine Deal, Kathryn Allen, Jean Davis, Violet Glenn, James Wilson, Darrell Sechrest, and W. H. Davis. The play is being directed by Miss Muriel Bulwinkle. At present the English and Music Departments give programs on alternative Fridays.

Among the programs heard over WMFR thus far are those given by the Social Science Department and the one given by Miss Leslie Johnson's English students. On the program conducted by Miss Johnson's classes a short play "Memories" and the story of Valentine Day were presented.

Many interesting programs are being planned for the coming weeks Miss Muriel Bulwinkle, head of the English Department says, "The English Department in sponsoring these programs hopes to give as many students as possible practice in broadcasting."

STATE-WIDE ESSAY CONTEST ANNOUNCED

The American Legion will sponsor a State-Wide Essay Contest in North Carolina, which is open for all high school students.

First, second, and third prizes are, respectively; $25, $15, $10, to be awarded by the American Legion, Department of North Carolina. Winning essays from the counties must be in by April 10, 1939, and the final decisions for awards will be made April 30, 1939.

Mrs. Ruth Carter and Miss Bernice Love have charge of the contest in High Point Senior high school.

SENIOR EXAMINATIONS RESUMED THIS YEAR

The North Carolina College Conference, in conjunction with the Department of Public Instruction, will sponsor the High School Senior Examinations which will be given to the seniors in this school about March 14th.

These examinations have been given to seniors for several years. This year they will not follow subject matter lines and therefore the differences in the giving of the examinations in the various sections of the state will not be important.

GIRL RESERVE CLUB ANNOUNCES PROGRAM

The complete program for the Sophomore Girl Reserve Club activities has been arranged for the remainder of the year.

The club, under the supervision of Miss Bernice Love, meets every Monday night for supper at the Y. W. C. A. Among recent activities of the club have been a skating party at which some fifty persons were present, the entertaining of girls from the Children's Home orphanage at a supper, and the entertainment of the Greensboro Girl Reserves.

Included in the varied activities for the club in the future are plans for the entertaining of the Junior Hi-Y on March 13, an Easter Egg Hunt for Negro children on April 3, and a hay-ride on May 1.

I have no words for this
Unutterable bliss,
And were I poet,
Would be dumb
And sing in muted silence
Of this
Which holds me now enchanted
And numb.
