

DEBATERS TO CHAPEL HILL APRIL 20

Superlatives Elected After Senior Meeting

Students Chosen After Close Ballot

Senior class superlatives were elected on March 29 after a Senior class meeting.

The nominations were made by a committee consisting of two representatives from each senior homeroom. This committee met on March 22.

The following people were elected as the superlatives after a very close ballot:

Most Popular:

Bob Truesdell and Eloise Rankin.

Best Sport:

Bill Wagner and Geneva Crowder.

Most Musical:

John Fowler and Shirley Welborne.

Wittiest:

Henry Baker and Sara Sears.
Most Gentlemanly and Lady-like:
Akers Hutchens and Josephine
(Continued on Page Four)

STUDENTS ATTEND EVENT AT E. C. T. C.

Several seniors from the high school will represent High Point High School at the High School Day which is being sponsored by the faculty and the students of Eastern Carolina Teacher's College on April 11.

Those students will be guests at a barbecue luncheon which will be given on the campus. Miss Mary H. Greene, who is chairman of the Committee on Invitations, said that the students would be given tickets to attend this luncheon at the registration desk in the Wright Building.

SOCIOLOGY DEBATES

Debating is the chief activity in the social science classes at the present time.

The sociology students, under the leadership of Miss May Meador are holding a series of classroom debates. Subjects for the latter are being chosen by Miss Meador.

The American History division is reading a special book, "Man and the Motor Car," a new introduction to the course.

General Business Classes Conduct Character Survey

FRENCHMAN TALKS

Monsieur Sorbin, a chemical engineer, whose office is in Paris, France, spoke to the seventh period French class on Friday afternoon, March 24.

The Frenchman said he had been in the United States off and on for 18 years. However, he is not an American citizen—he said he would not give up America for France since he likes the American ideals so much better.

Monsieur Sorbin read several of La Fontaine's Fables. The students enjoyed his visit very much.

Senior Play Cast

Above you see pictured those seniors who will take part in the annual Senior play. They are: top row, left to right, Josephine Deal, Caroline York, June Parker, Elizabeth Welbourne; second row, Roger Taylor, Kathryn Allen, Eloise Rankin, Hugh Strickland; bottom row, James Wilson, Carlton Foster, Hoyt Hilton, and George Shelhorse. (Photo by Smith's Studio)

Senior Class To Present Pulitzer Prize Play "Icebound" May 5 and 6

GLORIA PACKER ELECTED JUNIOR HIGH MAY QUEEN

Gloria Packer, of the eighth grade, was elected May Queen of High Point Junior high school after the second vote was taken.

Two primaries were held with registrars, judges, and booths.

The attendants to the queen will be Jane Fennee and Betty Meredith from the seventh grade; Colleen Teague and Helen White from the eighth grade.

Miss Thelma Connell is the faculty advisor for the May Day Festival, which is to be held during the first week in May.

Cast of Characters Already Selected

The senior class will feature as its annual drama, the Pulitzer prize play, "Icebound," on Friday and Saturday nights, May 5th and 6th.

This is a three-act drama, written by Owen Davis. Rehearsals will be resumed after the Easter Program which was given this morning.

The cast of characters for this drama is composed of: Henry Jordan, played by Hugh Strickland;

(Continued On Page Four)

NEW COURSES MAY BE OFFERED

The High Point City Schools are contemplating the introduction of various new courses dealing with vocational guidance.

Superintendent Charles F. Carroll, Jr. stated in an interview, "A study is being made of courses offered in the school system with the view of determining whether or not the schools are serving the needs of the students."

Announcement with regard to new courses will be made at a later date.

ANDREWS MEMORIAL

The contract for the T. Wingate Andrew's Memorial to be erected at the Senior High School, was given to the Central Stone Works of this city, Tuesday.

The memorial, made of Georgia silver gray marble, is to be placed between the driveway and the high school building, halfway between the gymnasium and the auditorium. The monument will consist of two seats and a main marker with flag stones leading away from the seats. A bronze plate, donated by the High Point Rotary Club, placed on the marker, will give a part of Mr. Andrew's speech at the opening of the new high school building.

The memorial will be erected in approximately three weeks.

Girl Reserves To Have Song Festival This Month

QUESTIONNAIRE HELD

The Girl Reserve Advisory Committee met last week in order to make tentative plans for the spring activities of all of the Girl Reserve Clubs in the city.

Included in the plans, the most outstanding event is to be a song festival which will be held some time this month. All the Girl Reserves will participate in this program. In producing this song festival, each club is to represent some country by presenting native songs, dances, and short plays which are to depict the life in that country.

Among the other events which
(Continued on Page Four)

Wake Forest Scene Of Next Debate Battle

Represent High Point First Time In Six Years

The High Point High School debating team will represent High Point at Chapel Hill for the first time in six years due to their twin victories over Greensboro High and Richard J. Reynolds High of Winston-Salem in the triangular debates.

The High Point negative team composed of Darrell Sechrest and Bill Currie, Jr., won their debate over the affirmative team of Greensboro High in Greensboro, by the virtue of a three to nothing vote.

While the negative team was orating in Greensboro, the affirmative team was defending its laurels at home. The affirmative, George Humphries and Kermit Albertson, won their point over the R. J. Reynolds High of Win-
(Continued on Page Four)

ORCHESTRA PLANS SEVERAL PROGRAMS

Miss Virginia Frank stated today, "We are undertaking by far the largest and most ambitious plans since the orchestra was re-established last year."

On April 19th in the statewide music contest in Greensboro, the orchestra will compete against some of the largest schools in North Carolina including Asheville, Charlotte, Raleigh, and Durham. Over 5,000 students will participate in the contest festival which lasts three days. Miss Frank said "I cannot tell how our orchestra will rate, but it will probably be one of the best we have ever entered in the contest."

The orchestra will play in the auditorium for the Life Adjustment Conference which will be held on April 14.

During Music Week the orchestra will present a program for us.

On March 31st the orchestra played for an Easter program broadcast over the local broadcasting station.