

Doris Byerly Edits Pointer

Doris Byerly, a senior, is the editor-in-chief of this issue of the POINTER. She chose for her staff Cecil Prince, news editor; Dwanda Lee Bissette, editorial page; and Clifton Overcash, sports editor. The journalism class served as reporters.

Those who are on the business staff for this issue are Marie Lilly, Doris Long, Mary Stroupe, Baker Shelton, Margie Pegram, Dot Leach, and one new member Elaine Welborn.

CAST OF CHARACTERS ALREADY SELECTED

The production or technical staff, which is under the direction of Miss Muriel C. Bulwinkle, has not been entirely completed as yet, although there are many volunteers. When this staff is completed, they will make plans for the stage designs, costumes, and in general, will take care of the technical part of the work.

Two Paramount motion pictures are scheduled to show at High Point high school in the near future.

Life Adjustment

Dr. Clyde A. Milner Main Speaker

Dr. Clyde A. Milner, of Guilford College, will be the keynote speaker of the Life Adjustment Conference to be held here April 14, using as his subject, "You Can Make of Your Life What You Wish."

Assembly at nine o'clock in the auditorium will be opened by an orchestra program, followed by the devotional by Rev. J. C. Madison, pastor of First M. P. Church. Principal D. P. Whitley will introduce the visitors, after which Kathryn Allen will introduce Dr. Milner.

Following a ten minute recess the students, at 10:40, will go into Panel Discussion groups, dealing with all phases of vocations and avocations.

After lunch, students will assemble in their homerooms at 1:20 to discuss the speeches of the morning. At two o'clock they will assemble in the auditorium, a musical program opening the session. The keynote speaker of the afternoon will be Dr. Henry Lewis Smith, ex-president of Davidson College, who will speak on "Preparing for a Complete Life."

Easter Pageant Given In Chapel

An Easter program was presented in chapel this morning, depicting the crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus.

Divided into six scenes, the pageant portrayed the Triumphal Entry, The Betrayal, Jesus' Trial, On the Way to Golgotha, His Crucifixion, and the Resurrection.

Characters taking part were Hazel Chapman, Grace Ellington, Violet Carmichael, Doris Smith, Richard Jennett, Jack Paul, Frank Myers, Johnny Miller, George Shelhorse, Billy Barker, Everett Gwyn, W. H. Davis, Bob Bencini, Charles McMurray, Carl-ton Foster, Harry Wagner, Marie Workman, Emmogene Shields, Martha Varner, Lillie Mae Moore, Baker Shelton, and Bernice Whitlow. Stephen Clark and Glenn Payne were in charge of the lighting effects. Edith Seckler was the reader and Kermit Albertson was the pianist.

Miss Muriel Bulwinkle, who wrote the pageant, and Miss Emily Gentry directed the program. Miss Bulwinkle replaced Miss Clara Whitehead, who was unable to help direct the pageant because of an appendicitis operation.

BLACK BISON DEFEATED BY REYNOLDS TRACKSTERS

The High Point track team tasted defeat in their first meet of the season last Friday, when they were defeated by the strong R. J. Reynolds High team by the score of 86½ to 30½.

Gray was the star of the meet as he captured three first places for the total of fifteen points. Jones came for a share of the praise as he won one first and one second place.

Darrell Sechrest, leader of the High Point negative team, said of his victory in Greensboro, "I guess we just out-stomped them."

Kermit Albertson, leader of the affirmative team, said, "I am so happy, I could jump straight up."

A fellow classman of Humphries, Bill Curry, added, "I never knew how fine Greensboro really could be."
