

Last Minute News

Election returns from senior homerooms on Thursday morning reveal that Sara Sears, Amy Lou Holmes, and Akers Hutchens were elected to write various senior reviews for the Senior Section of the Enterprise to be published May 28. Sara Sears was elected senior class prophet; Amy Lou Holmes, class poet; and Akers Hutchens, class historian.

Rev. F. L. Conrad, pastor of the Lutheran Church, will deliver the commencement sermon Sunday, June 4. Complete plans of commencement exercises will probably be announced in the next issue of The Pointer.

Sergeant Jack W. McMahon, of the High Point Police Detective bureau, spoke to Mr. Sam Smith's fourth period class Wednesday on the subject of "Criminal Investigation."

The Senior High School orchestra tied with Roanoke Rapids, scoring a two, for first place in the State Music Contest in session at Greensboro. Charles Medlin won highest rating in the cello contest. Bobby Gayle, of Jr. High, won first place in piano solo. The flute quartet in piano solo. The flute quartet, scoring a two, is composed of Mildred Jones, Sarah Scruggs, both Senior High, and Irene Moose and Helen Bissett, both of Junior High. A trumpet trio of Junior High, composed of Homer Hayworth, Reid Marsh, Sloan Gibson, won a rating of two in the contest. The string quartet, composed of Sloan Gibson, Thomas Silver, Bobby Gayle, and Charles Medlin, won a rating of two.

The approved list of Junior nominees for the student representatives to the Student Council next year has been completed. Others may be added to the list later. From the following list one boy and one girl will be selected to the Student Council.

(Continued on page 4)

ORCHESTRA TIES FOR FIRST PLACE; FESTIVAL IS PLANNED

JUNIOR CLASS MEET PLANNED TO ELECT COUNCIL MEMBERS

A junior class meeting has been planned for week after next for the purpose of electing next year's senior council representatives. President Bill Simmons will preside.

A slate has not yet been made out for candidates for senior representatives, one boy and one girl.

Also, included in the program will be a discussion of the elective courses provided for seniors next year. The advantages of Home Economics, Business, Sciences, Manual Training, Geography, and other elective courses will be presented, and the possibility of the addition of other courses will be taken up.

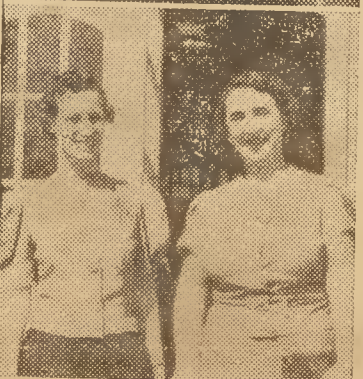

The election of senior representatives necessarily comes a little late in the year because the president of the student body must be selected from the junior class before the representatives are selected.

Girl Reserves To Hold Conference

The Girl Reserve Clubs of the two Carolinas, West Virginia, and Virginia will hold a conference at Camp Betty Hastings, off Walkertown road, June 9-17.

Each club is allowed a certain number of delegates to the conference. They are chosen in number according to the size of the club and town. High Point is allowed to send seven delegates to the conference. There is a movement at the present, however, to raise this quota to nine delegates. The delegates must be either Juniors or Seniors in high school, Girl Reserve advisors, committee members, or secretaries.

(Continued on page 4)

HIGH POINT STUDENT COUNCIL PRESIDENT CANDIDATES CHOSEN

Candidates for the president of the student council have been nominated, and a vigorous campaign has been launched.

The candidates are: Mull Lutz, Cecil Prince, Arthur Utley; Mary Jane Wilson, and Billy Winders. Their campaign managers are: Darrell Sechrest, Edward Short, Bill Simmons, Sara Sears, and W. H. Davis, respectively.

Registration is required before a student may vote in this election. Registration will continue through Monday, April 24. On Tuesday the speeches will be made. The topics for the candidates will be: Mull Lutz, Higher Type Citizenship; Mary Jane Wilson, Keeping the Grounds and Building Beautiful; Bill Winders, Value of Sportsmanship; Cecil Prince, Student Participation in Government; and Arthur Utley's topic is School Activities. The election will be held during the latter part of the week.

The pictorial review of the Life Adjustment Conference, held last week, gives us pictures of two of the main speakers, Dr. Clyde A. Milner, upper left, and Dr. Henry Louis Smith, upper right. Other pictures include student committees, two representatives from the faculty committee, Misses Louise Hunter and Leslie Johnson, and two speakers from Fort Bragg.

SECOND CONFERENCE PRAISED BY STUDENTS

The second Life Adjustment Conference of High Point High School was held here Friday, attracting wide enthusiasm throughout the school.

Main addresses were given by Dr. Clyde A. Milner, president of Guilford College and Dr. Henry Louis Smith of Greensboro. Panel discussions brought a wide variety of distinguished experts in their respective fields. Dr. W. D. Perry of the University of North Carolina gave an interesting address on Boys' Problems, while Miss Betsy Dupuy spoke to the girls on Girls' Problems.

Students of the school enthusiastically entered into the activities, including the tea dance held Friday afternoon which was attended by hundreds.

Darrell Sechrest, active leader in the conference commented: "I'm sure that this conference has meant a lot to us and we shall profit by it in years to come."

Other students who took part in the wide program offered hope that the conference would be duplicated next year. The student chairmen who presided at the panel discussions did an admirable job keeping the discussions lively.

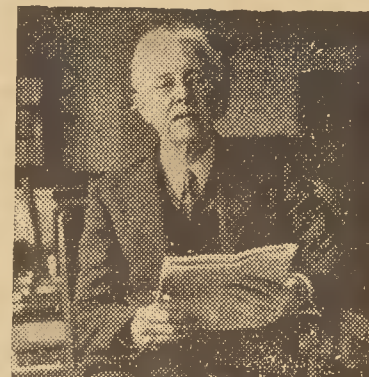

(Continued on page 4)

Senior Hi-Y Will Initiate Members

The local Senior Hi-Y is making plans for the next two weeks which will include many varied and interesting activities.

Among these activities is the electing of new members. No names or number of new members were available. Initiation plans were also unavailable but it is usually an interesting and amusing sight for the onlookers and should be again.

The Hi-Y's are also planning to fete the Girl Reserves with an outdoor form of entertainment. Plans are going forward under the direction of Bob Truesdell, president of the local club.

SENIOR CLASS HOLDS CLASS MEETING, AND COMMITTEES CHOSEN

The Senior class held a meeting to discuss plans for the remainder of the school year on Tuesday, April 18. President Josephine Deal presided. The devotionals were conducted by Earline Loftin.

Candidates for junior marshalls were introduced and then dismissed. Three types of commencement exercises were discussed and a show of hands was called for to determine what the majority of the class desired.

A committee was appointed to determine whether or not the class wants a senior dance. The members of the committee are Darrell Sechrest, Caroline York, Mary Holton and Paul T. Bryant.

Chairmen of the various committees necessary for the production of the senior play were introduced and they, in turn, introduced the members of their respective committees. The publicity committee includes Sara Sears, chairman, Annie Laurie Shelton, Ruth Griffith, Doris Albertson, Eloise Haney, Margaret Harris, Martha Varner, Dorothy Dean Davis, Frances Chappell, Jack Paul, and Myra Ward; the technical staff—Billy Barker, chairman, Stephen Clark, Hoyt Hedrick, and Baker Shelton; the house committee—Akers Hutchens, chairman, Geneva Crowder, Baker Shelton, Mary Stroupe, Marjorie Foster, Frank Myers, Wade Morris, Charles Ivey, Amy Lou Holmes, Wanda Harville; the property and costuming committee—Betsey Saunders, chairman, Betty Smith, Doris Byerly, Alfreda Hardee.

Announcement was also made of the members of the committee to choose the senior gift. The members are: Frances Langley, Iris Culler, Stephen Clark, and Charles Ivey.

Miss Elizabeth Lindsay, faculty advisor, said that the senior picnic will be held the last week of school, while the under-classes are having their exams.

HIGH POINT COLLEGE BAND GAVE CONCERT WEDNESDAY

Thirty-Six Piece Band Has Former High Point High Students

The thirty-six piece High Point College band, under the direction of Mr. Olin D. Blickensderfer, presented a concert before the student body last Wednesday morning.

Dean P. E. Lindley, who is manager of the college band, presented the drum major, Russell Hughes, who led the first number, "Noble Men" which was composed by Fillmore. The remaining selections on the program were directed by Mr. Blickensderfer.

The band was accompanied by the twin drum majors, Emma and Evelyn Whittiker.

Former High Point High School students now playing in the college band are: Warren Godwin, Cecil Freeman, Edith Vance, Jimmy Clark and Jimmie McCall.

The program included the following compositions: "Finlandia," "Andante," "The Gold and Silver Waltz," "The Anelus," "King Arthur," and a group of Mozart selections.

DEBATERS AT CHAPEL HILL STATE MEETING YESTERDAY, TODAY

The debating team of High Point High School debated in the state meet at Chapel Hill yesterday and will be debating today, the outcome of which was not available in time for publication.

Sixteen students trying out for the debating team set the wheels turning for the most successful year in the six preceding years for the high school.

Kermit Albertson and George Humphries, affirmative; and Darrell Sechrest and Bill Currie, negative; were chosen to make up the team. Ruth Koontz, affirmative, and Frances Hamilton, negative, are the two alternates.

Practice debates were held with Thomasville and Asheboro. In the triangular debate with Winston-Salem and Greensboro, High Point's affirmative defeated Winston-Salem.

(Continued on page 4)