

PRESENTING THE JUNIORS

This time it is the Juniors' turn to shine. Here we go—

If Bill Currie keeps on, Soc Chakales will be looking for another position.

If Allan Hayes is in a good humor third period, you can rest assured that a certain B. R. has politely spoken to her.

Have you ever noticed Herb Hodgins' beautiful blue eyes? (If you haven't, you don't know what you've missed)

Doesn't Stanton Cecil remind you of L'il Abner?

Orlando Rowland is destined to be a fine chemist.

Here's new competition, girls—"Susie" Preston, a newcomer here. (Incidentally, she dances very well with Bum Taylor. Don't you "Susie?"")

Bud Kivett has the makings of an All-State end, and he's not bad looking either, girls.

Joe Given is certainly gifted with a fluent tongue. It comes in handy, tho, eh, Joe?

Collins Festival

The successful Collins Festivals will be topped off November 23 by featuring the Wells Players in "Youth Carries the Torch."

The Civitan Club members as well as the citizens of High Point have enjoyed various types of entertainment put on by the Collins Festivals and this play "Youth Carries the Torch" is to end successfully another entertainment season.

Glen and Mara Wells in person will be with this production. Mr. Wells is one of the dramatic directors of the Collins Festival and has charge this fall of direction of three casts of this spirited and fast moving play presented on three different circuits.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

The music departments of the High School are engaged in various activities, and they are rehearsing for several performances which will be given in the future.

Concluding their practicing for football games, the band learned to make formations on the field. Recently they have been practicing new formations for the Reynolds game. Now the band is rehearsing music for the state contest and concert, which will be held in Greensboro near the end of March.

The orchestra, which has already played for the student body, will give a concert next Sunday.

The Glee Club is planning to give an operetta soon, but plans for the performance are still indefinite.

HONOR SOCIETY

The national Honor Society publicity department announces that the club will begin a drive to impress the organization's worthiness on the rising juniors and seniors.

The drive will be in the form of a publicity campaign over the public address system and other means.

"MR. SMITH GOES TO WASHINGTON"

Mr. Sam Smith, prominent member of our Social Science department, is going to make a trip to Washington with some of his students.

Some of the members of the POINTER staff wonder if it has any connection with the recent motion picture success. If it has, it seems to be the consensus of opinion that once and for all High Point will have established itself on the map.

MISS BURRUS ATTENDS FRENCH CONVENTION

Jean Racine, dramatist, was opened with a lecture on Jean Racine given by Rene Hardre. After this came scenes from the tragic play "Andromaque" performed by players from the Alliance Francaise of Charlotte.

A reception following the play was given to all guests and members.

Saturday morning the meeting continued with addresses from several people on subjects of France. A pedagogical discussion was then held with subjects dealing with various text books.

Miss Burrus was much impressed by the procedure of the meeting and the congenial welcome received.

Dramatic Club

The new Dramatic Study Group, under the direction of Miss Ruth Goodman, began Monday morning.

This group has been organized for the purpose of teaching dramatically inclined pupils the principals of dramatics in all its forms, giving emphasis to make-up and costuming.

Our school as one among a hundred others, has been asked by the Co-ordinating Committee on the Teaching of Drama in Secondary Schools of the American Educational Theater Association to cooperate in a project to include a unit of photoplay study in their courses of study of the drama.

As you already know, other departments of secondary education have made considerable use of the motion picture as an additional instrument of aid in their teaching. The purpose of the project is to give further recognition and emphasis to the value of the photoplay in the course of study of the drama.

talked, it is hoped that it will be possible to get Mr. Scott, our head coach to say a few words on his own behalf and that of the team. No one denies that Mr. Scott is doing the greatest job of high school coaching in the state. He has been nominated for the post of best coach by prominent sports writers on daily papers.

Our excellent squad of cheerleaders will then lead the student body in some good 'ole Bison yells in preparation for the great game to take place to night. The high school orchestra will furnish suitable music for the occasion.

At the game which will begin at eight o'clock, the 73 piece Winston-Salem band will be featured with the High Point High band at the half.

count for nothing in the present setup."

Faculty Advisor, Miss Hunter stated recently that the council is not a body to govern the school so much as it is a class in leadership for those who take part and are members of the council.

SENIOR DAY AT STATE

Approximately two - hundred seniors from High Point High School attended Senior Day held at North Carolina State College on November 11.

Invitations were extended to seniors throughout the state by Charles A. Hunter, president of the senior class at State and an interesting program was arranged for the entertainment of the visitors.

After inspecting the dormitories, laboratories, classrooms, and the college's rapidly expanding campus, the seniors were guests of the college at the State-Duquesne football game that was won by Duquesne 7-0.

During the summer 230 books were rebound. The school now takes 16 new magazines and 10 daily papers, including the following: 6 Greensboro, 3 Charlotte, and 1 High Point Enterprise.

MORE BENNETT STUFF

Music must run in the family or somepn' 'cause Ray Eberle is the younger brother of Bob Eberle, featured vocalist with Jimmy Dorsey. Marian Hutton is the younger sister of Betty Hutton, Vincent Lopez' vocalist... Hal Kemp recently observed his thirteenth anniversary as a band-leader... John Scott Trotter, whose band plays with the Bing Crosby show, used to be Kemp's pianist... Louise Tobin, featured vocalist with Goodman, is Mrs. Harry James... My nomination for the song of the week: A-Well-A-Take-Em A-Joe by the composers of "Flat Foot Floogie" the standards of the organization.

The reason that the Hi-Y is taking in the fifteen new members at this time is to enlarge the club so it will be better able to carry on worthwhile projects to a greater degree of success than they ever have in the past.

Heretofore the Hi-Y has been a valuable source of aid in many worthy causes and their help has often been greatly appreciated.

The Hi-Y will have its usual Church banquet at the Wesley Memorial Church November 27.
