

Simeonmen Journey To Asheville For Game Tonight

With the record of five conference wins and one loss behind them, the Black Bison basketball team is now journeying to the hill country, hoping to cop another conference victory.

The Asheville Maroons came to the lowlands on January 18, only to lose by the score of 54 to 33. This game was the second conference tilt for the locals and was among the first for the Maroons. Action was fact and furious in this game, in spite of the outcome. The Asheville team has many good players and potential power.

As some of the football enthusiasts know, the trip to Asheville last fall started a landslide of ties which caused the football squad to fall short of the conference crown. Local fans hope that the same luck does not overtake them on this trip.

Undiscovered power for both teams is expected to be found. The reserves of the local team, if all goes well, will probably see action during the progress of the game. Again if all goes well the local basketeers will make the journey home on Saturday with light hearts and high spirits.

Bison Defeat Boyden, 55-28

Points piled up fast and furious for the local cagers last Tuesday night to the score of 55 to 28 in favor of the High Pointers. The Boyden team of Salisbury were held at a standstill by the airtight defense set up by the Black Bison team.

Captain Bill Hartley led the attack by scoring 10 points. His ability to sink pot shots from almost any position of the court was equalled by his skill in preventing personal fouls from being marked up against him.

Bill Hunsucker and Jack Hawks tied for second place with eight points each.

The weight of the game during the second period rested on the shoulders of the second and third teams who upped the score until it read 29 to 10 when the half-time buzzer sounded.

The sophomore team of H. P. H. S. set the Boyden Jr. Varsity down in the preliminary game by the score of 30 to 17. "Wheat" Miller and Dewey Beck led the local players with 12 points each.

BARRIER TO COACH NEW TENNIS TEAM

Hubert Barrier, after a year's absence, will coach the netmen of the High Point high school this spring. Last season he was slated to be coach, but owing to an automobile accident he was not able to do the work.

The 12-man Bison tennis team will be selected from the 14 candidates now out for practice. Coach Barrier is looking forward to a full schedule with possibly 18 to 20 matches.

The H. P. H. S. netmen will start their own season on or about the first of April.

The team has been invited to attend the Sedgfield Invitation Tournament.

BISON ARE DEFEATED IN CONFERENCE TILT

Last Friday night the Black Bison team went down in defeat at the hands of the Greensboro Purple Whirlwinds in their first conference defeat, 29 to 20.

Fouls started both teams off, but the locals jumped to an early lead, gathering in five quickies while limiting the Whirlies to one. However the Gate City boys soon pulled out in front and did not lose the lead the rest of the night.

Trailing 18 to 12 at the start of the third period, the Bison scored only one point because of

THE FACTS OF THE CASE

It seems that some people have jumped to the conclusion that the high school students got a raw deal in distribution of the tickets for the Greensboro basketball game. The facts are:

- 60% General admission went to High Point High.

the tight defense that the visitors wove around the basket.

Highlights of the game were the technical fouls called on the Greensboro bench. Coach Bob Jamieson and his assistant seemed unable to keep quiet. The calling of these technical fouls was something new to most people and it required courage from the officials to do it. In the fourth quarter, one of the players, unable to stop, ran into one of the Greensboro cheerleaders and knocked her out.

LOCKER ROOM STEAM

By PAT MELLONAS

Bouncing their way through strenuous practices, the local cagers have gained enough steam to engineer themselves into a near win over their next opponents, the worthy Greensboro girls' team. However, whether or not their tallies will outnumber those of the Greensboro girls remains to be seen. This game promises to be a thriller . . .

Plans are now under way for organizing the Girls' Athletic Association. At a recent meeting, Phyllis Wall was elected president of the local group . . .

Betty Darby and Maxine Coltrane, in previous practices and games, have shown a fine brand of guarding . . .

The local high school girls' team is indebted to Mrs. Kenneth Smith, athletic director of last year, for starting competitive sports with neighboring schools. The girls are thankful for the opportunity to continue these sports again this year. Here's hoping that they win in the coming games . . .

Tennis plunkers should be getting the yen to knock the old ball around again. The weather at present certainly seems to be on their side . . .

STUDENT COUNCIL

be held in February. Bob Renfrow, president of the central district, will meet with other representatives of this district on Saturday morning. The purpose of the district meeting will be to exchange ideas concerning student government.

Another project which the Student Council has successfully carried out has been the placing of posters on each table in the cafeteria. Credit for the clever cartoons goes to Tommy Garst and Kent Jackson who gave their time and effort to the project.

Last night the High Point Black Bison were losers of a wrestling match with Greensboro's Purple Whirlwinds by a score of 26 to 11.

Announcement was made early this week by Coach A. J. Simeon that the state-wide wrestling meet will be held in High Point this year. Teams from the eastern part of the state and also from Charlotte, High Point, Greensboro, and other cities in the western part will meet here to contend for the state championship.

This event is usually held in Chapel Hill, but because of the efforts of Coach Simeon, it will be held here this year, going back to Chapel Hill the following year.

to eight for Greensboro by decisioning Harold "Zeke" Cox. Tommy Garst was pinned next by Veeren.

Then came the battle of the night when Paul "Fireball" Hulin grappled with Crawford. The boys mixed it enough and after a real struggle Hulin pinned him. Again they were at it and the "Fireball" knocked him so dizzy he didn't know where he was, but he was game to continue the fight.

Dick Davenport was pinned by Finison and Donald Hooper was decisioned by Jerry Clapp. In the unlimited class Zander Sherrill pinned Roy Bragg of High Point.
