

Curtain Callers Journey To Chapel Hill March 22

Bloom and Larcom Are To Enter Original Work In Contests

"All aboard for U. N. C.!" This will be the cry of twenty lucky Curtain Caller amateurs who will leave Tuesday afternoon, March 22, accompanied by faculty directors, Mr. Lewis Heniford and Miss Laura McInnes, to participate in the Carolina Dramatic Festival in Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

Ten boys and girls will represent the Curtain Callers' Dramatic Club at the university next week. This annual festival is attended by students from junior and senior high schools, colleges, and little theater groups from all parts of the state.

Competition at the festival is divided into several groups. High Point High School has entered all divisions. Teasa Bloom has written a one-act play entitled "The Backbone of America," which has already been sent to Chapel Hill. It is a patriotic fantasy, which has been entered in the play-writing division. Jean Larcom will submit her three posters for competition in the poster division. These pieces of art have previously been posted on the first-floor bulletin board for comments and suggestions.

The play which the Curtain Callers will produce is "Escape by Moonlight." Portraying the various roles are: Thomasine Strother as Kathy, Tom Beaver as Dr. Hartwell, and Max Shoaf as Jeffry. Student director is Barbara Short, and Pete Walker will have charge of properties and lighting.

Students who attend the festival will be entertained in private homes and university dormitories. The last session will be held on Saturday evening, and those attending plan to return to High Point on Sunday, March 27.

Frosh-Soph Prom Set For April 8

Plans are now under way for the Freshman-Sophomore Prom, which is to be held on Friday evening, April 8, from 8:30 to 12:00 o'clock in the Senior High School gym.

The entertainment committee has planned a variety of games for those people who do not dance. This committee has also engaged The Dreamsters, a swing band composed of high school band members, to furnish the music. The band is conducted by Bobby Hayworth.

Only those students who are now Freshmen or Sophomores in this high school will be able to attend the prom. Tickets will be sold at 50c for one person and 75c a couple.

PERSONALITY PLUS

ships with others, such as, girl-girl, girl-family, and girl-boy relationships will be "ironed out." Preparation for marriage and family life will be brought up during the final period.

The end of the entire ten weeks of these courses will be highlighted by a fashion show. Featured in this show will be those girls who have profited by the discussions. These Y-Teens will demonstrate by their appearance and poise what they have learned during the course.

At the next discussion, relationships will be taken up.

Debating Teams To Meet Neighbors

Two High Point High debating teams will compete in a debate with teams from the neighboring cities of Winston-Salem and Greensboro on April 1st. The subject of the debate is Resolved: That the United Nations now be revised into a Federal World Government.

The High Point negative team will debate Winston at Greensboro; the High Point affirmative team debates with Greensboro at Winston; and the Winston-Salem negative team will meet the Greensboro team at High Point.

Speakers on the H. P. negative team are Jackie Meekins and Dewey Greer. The affirmative team is made up of Shirley Kirkman and Charlene Thomas.

Winners in the local debates will compete in the district tournament, and the district winners will debate in the finals at Chapel Hill.

POINTER Staff

Expresses Sympathy

The "Pointer" staff wishes to express deepest sympathy to Mrs. Johnnie Jackson on the death of her father, Mr. H. U. Oakes.

Mrs. Jackson has long been a favorite with students at H. P. H. S. There are few boys or girls in the school who have not known her winning smile and helpful guidance. The news of her father's death was a shock to the entire school; and the staff feels sure that, through these lines, it is expressing the sympathy and love of hundreds of students.

March 24-25 Set For J. C. Jollies

The annual Jollies will be presented in the H. P. H. S. auditorium on the evening of March 24 and 25, sponsored by the local Junior Chamber of Commerce and consisting of all local talent.

The minstrel show will consist of two parts. The first will be the regular minstrel circle with Jim Clontz as interlocutor; the second, a levy scene with Joe Cofield and Nick Lawrence as M. C.'s.

The script is entirely new with the exception of Slim Jenson's singing of "Lay Low, Lizzie," which was popular enough at his last performance to warrant its addition to the script.

Many high schoolers will be included in the Jaycee Jollies' cast.

Beta Members To Attend Convention

On Friday, April 29, eleven members of the High Point chapter of the National Beta Club will attend the state convention in Raleigh, which is to be held at the Sir Walter Raleigh Hotel.

A talent show will be presented at the first general meeting of the convention, on Friday evening. All business, including the election of state officers, will take place on Saturday; and that evening the convention will close with a banquet and dance.

Boys' Glee Club Formed

Under the direction of Mr. Carl G. N. Cronstedt, a new boys' glee club has recently been organized here.

At their first meeting in the choir room, Mr. Cronstedt announced that the new group would hold at least two meetings a week, one in the morning before classes, and one at some designated time after school. With approximately thirty-five voices participating in the rehearsing of the chorals, presentations will soon be made to various bodies at announced times.

A slate of officers has not yet been elected, but Mr. Cronstedt states there will definitely be presiding club officers.

The new glee club will consist mainly of A Capella members, and with their past choral background, the boys' chorus should soon be ready to produce a program of stirring religious numbers.
