

Several WHPS Staff Members Inspect Chapel Hill Radio Station

On January 15-16, several members of the staff of WHPS-FM went to Chapel Hill. Their purpose was to tour WUNC and learn as much about radio as they could.

Several of the faces which started out on the tour with eagerness to learn everything soon changed to bewilderment. "Manager, assistant manager, traffic manager, production manager, continuity director"—it all sounded much more complicated than WHPS.

The group was amazed that there was absolutely no confusion in spite of the fact that the entire Communications Center was undergoing complete renovation to make room for television studios. Quite different from WHPS!

All work at WUNC is done by students. Even the complicated console and engineering equipment was built by students. Rigid rules for the station have been made by students, and students see that they are enforced.

Until about 11:30 Friday night, the University of North Carolina radio station was invaded by staff members of the High Point Schools radio station, and the invasion resumed bright and early the next morning.

After hearing talks by Mr. Young and Mr. Wallace of the university, several members of the visiting group became interested in attending the Radio Institute, which is offered by the university for two weeks during the month of June to high school students or members of the immediate graduating class.

Students who went to Chapel Hill were: Bill Bailey, Sam Guy, Dan Odom, Jim Casey, Bob Blair, Larry Sledge, Ray Montgomery, Lee Groome, Albea Chafin, Betsy Lewis and Barbara Cook.

51 HPHS Students Serve As Guides For Atomic Exhibit

"Atomic Energy to the Grass Roots," an exhibit of nuclear studies and findings, was displayed in the school administration building January 15-16 with the backing of the High Point Rotary Club, the High Point Public Schools, and High Point College.

The display is touring the nation and stopping at only four cities in North Carolina: Asheville, Winston-Salem, High Point, and Chapel Hill.

Fifty-one high school students helped with this exhibit during the day. The following students explained the various phases of the exhibit in the morning: Ronald Overcash, Larry Sledge, Gail Armstrong, Margaret Locke, Buzz Bowman, Ronnie Brewer, Grant Stockwell, Jerry Willis, Fred Long, H. J. York, Homer O'Brien, Harriett Shelton, Franklin Green, Becky Brown, David Rawley, Dudley Clinard, and John Hale.

Working in the afternoon were Kitty Marsh, Nancy Criddlebaugh, Wallace Stamey, Braxton Warner, Tommy Hayworth, Loy Kennedy, Joy Arrington, Jack Lewis, Billy Peters, Carolyn Guyer, Bob Williams, Loui Cox, Charles Loflin, Mary Strickland, Harriett Brown, and Beverly Bloom.

Serving at night were: Ann Teague, Tiny Neely, Dean Pruette, Dot Lloyd, Nancy Hill, Carolyn Roberts, Deanna Lewis, Bernie Brown, Sandra Beck, Billy Helms, Norman Samet, Gail Armstrong, Margaret Locke, Harriett Shelton, Anita Eagle, Mary Ann Lee, Buzz Bowman, and Nancy Stockwell.

State DE Convention To Be Held In Greensboro Feb. 26-27

At a meeting of the Distributive Education Club held on Tuesday night, January 12, members made plans to attend the State D. E. convention on February 26-27.

The schedule of events for the convention, which will be held at Woman's College in Greensboro, will include contests on Thursday and Friday morning, with the highlight of the convention a banquet and dance, on Friday night. It was decided that High Point D. E. Chapter members will enter the speech contest, the ad-planning and layout contest, and the merchandise manual contest.

The January 12 meeting was held at the home of chapter president Lawrence Brown, with Ruth Riggs acting as hostess for the occasion.

Spring plans for the High Point D. E. chapter were also formulated at that time. The February meeting, it was decided, would be on Tuesday, February 2, with O'Neill King and Glenn Fletcher acting as co-hosts. April 28 has been set as the date for the D. E.'s spring social event.

Lawrence Brown, who won third place in the speaking contest at the District D. E. Meeting held recently in Durham, will represent High Point in the state speaking contest. Other entrants will be selected late in February, according to High Point chapter adviser, Mrs. Barbara Coble.

Mrs. Girda Bolton Speaks At Recent FHA Meeting

Mrs. Girda Bolton was the speaker for the Future Homemakers of America meeting held at the high school, on January 11.

In an informal discussion, Mrs. Bolton, who was born in Germany and lived there until two years ago, told the members of the F. H. A. about her experiences in Germany during, and after, the war.

She stated that one of their sources of fear was the endless searching of their homes by the Allies after the surrender of the Germans. She also described the horrible devastation left after the fighting.

Also taking part in the program were Shirley Southern, with the devotions, and Penny Hutchinson, who gave a report on the Christmas banquet.

WHPS To Present British Productions

For the next few weeks WHPS-FM will present programs from the British Broadcasting Company, which will include lectures and dramatic presentations.

One of the dramas in this series is a play, The Constant Wife, written by Somerset Maugham and presented by the BBC Theatrical Company. "The Reith Lectures" are lectures by Arnold Toynbee entitled "The World and the West." There are six of the Toynbee lectures.

A Month in the Country by Duan Turgenev is a dramatic production starring Margaret Leighton. Strife is a new radio production of the drama by John Galsworthy.

Also new is the Patrioscript series. These are weekly tapes which relate, in dramatic tapes, the lives of famous men.

Morning broadcasting has been started. At 9:00 every morning WHPS-FM presents classical music and operas of interest to adults and high school students and tape recorded programs for elementary students. These morning broadcasts are available for classes who wish to hear them during the day.

Student Council Members Take Leadership Course

The Upper and Lower House representatives have been taking a leadership course under the direction of Dean Mac Pruette, president of the student body.

Dean Mac states that the idea of this discussion group on leadership was first conceived when he led the discussion on leadership in El Paso, Texas, at the student council convention.

Some of the points which are being discussed are: the duties, responsibilities, and routine of each office; the purposes of the student council; and the responsibility of leaders in giving to each member of his group as much of his training as possible.
