A dentist is the only fellow we know of who finds it profitable to look down in the mouth.

What Selma needs is a few less people trying to tell us what we need.

A farmer at least has this advantage. He is never docked when he is late for work.

Middle-age is the time when the average man is going to begin saving next month.

The good old days around Selma were those when the women folks used more baking powder than face powder.

We have Germany to thank for two of the best-known dogs in the world—the police dog and the hot dog.

Little did our grandparent think the day would ever come when girls would do any painting except on china.

The tariff has been increased on pocketbooks, but then pocket books are something we can get along without.

Most every girl is positive that she would make a good match for the man with money to burn.

Anyone can give advice, but the best advice we can give is never to start anything you can't stop.

If a man has an auto it doesn't prove that he has money. It only proves that he had money.

Being on the right track is correct, but if you just stop there you're apt to get run over.

A loyal American is one who gets mad when a foreigner curses the same institution he curses.

Who can remember when Hood's Sarsaparilla or St. Jacob's Oil would paint a farmer's barn just to put their sign on it?

A man prepares against old age by laying up money and creating an estate, a woman by dieting and more beauty treatments.

Reading that a prehistoric skeleton has been found with its legs wrapped around its neck one fellow says he never knew that they had rumble seats back in the early days.

Speaking of absent-mindedness, how about the young physician who in courting a girl forgot and charged her two dollars a visit?

CATCHES BIG FISH

Mr. W. H. Call, who is visiting his brother-in-law Mr. Oscar Jackson, in Jacksonville, Fla., went fishing at the jetties at the mouth of the St. John's river Monday and caught a Bass weighing 16 1-4 lbs. Mr. Jackson caught two about the same weight. Mr. Call's fish was skinned, cut up with an axe and prepared for the table. Mrs. J. W. Short and Mrs. Sarah Edgerton who were visiting in Jacksonville at the time shared the feast and declared it delicious.

FIVE SELMA GIRLS BRING BACK DIPLOMAS

Selma is justly proud of the five young girls who have recently returned from college with their graduation diplomas. They are Misses Mary Evelyn Parker and Eunice Temple who graduated from N. C. C. W., Greensboro, N. C.; Miss Elizabeth Temple from Limestone College, Gaffney, S. C., and Misses Mary Parker and Hazel Brown, from E. C. T. C., Greenville, N. C.
Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Temple are the proud parents of three recent graduates, J. P. Temple, Jr., from Selma High School, in addition to the two sisters named above.

PARENT-TEACHER WORK SHOWS TWO YEARS OF STEADY GROWTH HERE

Since the organization of the Selma Parent-Teacher Association two years ago, its growth has been steady and its achievement constructive. At all times its influence has been felt and valued in the school and community. The organization was most fortunate in its beginning in having one so faithful and so capable as Mrs. G. M. Norwood, its first President. Under her direction the Association not only grew and became a well organized parent-teacher association, but it carried through programs of service all in the interest of the child that resulted in a better school and a better community. Among numerous worth while things accomplished during Mrs. Norwood's administration might be mentioned, the Tonsil-Adenoid clinic conducted by Dr. Wade H. Atkinson of Washington, D. C., and resulting in untold benefit to children all over the County. This was sponsored by the Selma P.-T. A. and held at the Selma school building. The presentation to the school, funds, raised by various means to aid materially in the purchase of the handsome curtain and stage equipment.

Mrs. Norwood was re-elected for the second year, but on account of the press of other duties she had to resign and Mrs. E. V. Woodard was made President in her stead. Mrs. Woodard entered the work with enthusiasm and with her co-workers has labored untiringly in the interest of the children, the school and the community. There has been manifested on the part of parents and teachers a commendable co-operation and support in all of its programs and undertakings.

Among numerous projects which have been carried to successful completion sponsored by the P.-T. A. this year the following: Assisted with the Dental Clinic conducted by Drs. Branch and Woodard and which lasted 4 weeks, furnished 4 assistants each day from association, 24 grade mothers were appointed for first time. An interesting Founder's Day program and beautiful pageant was given in February. Brought Mrs. J. L. Emmanuel of Raleigh for talk to grade mothers. Dr. Ernest Branch gave lecture on "The Teeth" showing slides at January meeting to large audience, 4th, 5th and 6th grades gave play proceeds of which was given to association. Mrs. Bueck coached a play in April, "A Fortunate Calamity," the proceeds swelling the funds of the association. A flower selling contest proved interesting and profitable. Dr. J. Henry Highsmith gave a lecture at the May meeting. Some of the members of the association served a dinner to a group of Textile manufacturers in May, thereby bringing the amount raised during the year to about $150.

To the grade having most parents present for the entire school year a picture "The Gleaners," was given. Miss Morrison's 6th grade received this.

The following officers were unanimously elected for the ensuing year: Pres. Mrs. E. V. Woodard, vice-pres. Mrs. William Creech, secretary Miss Mary Neal Clement, Treasurer, Mrs. W. T. Woodard.

OUR NEW BALOTING LAW

(By M. L. STANCIL)

The June Primary was a pretty good thing, no doubt, because it afforded a chance to try the new law out; But many Republicans did not care to participate, because they had no special choice in their candidate.

Wherever they have tried the genuine Australian law, they say it is the best system that they ever saw; But while we don't have the whole thing complete, we believe it will be harder for any one to cheat.

One thing about the law that should cause no regrets, The Registrar must account for every ticket he gets; And if a voter spoils a ballot in casting his vote, May get another, but not over three, the lawmakers wrote.

Each voter's ticket is folded and numbered on its face, Which helps the election officials to keep perfect trace; When the ballot returns we can at its number look, To see if it corresponds with the number on the book.

Then we take our scissors and give the ticket a whack, While the voter fears his man is cut thru the back; One fellow unfolded his ballot to see what we had done, But found no harm had been accorded to his favorite son.

With these numbers in one box, the ballots in another, You can no longer identify one by looking at the other. When the balloting is over these numbers are void, So the law says they must be immediately destroyed.

You can go into a booth where no one is looking on Where you can vote as you pray all the while you're gone; And if we would do more praying while voting for men, There would be fewer law breakers to go to the pen.

Were we to spend as much effort for the salvation of souls, As we do to get voters to come out to the polls, Just for a single day throughout the whole land, The devil and all his hosts would have to disband.

SELMA BANTAMS WIN OVER KENLY JUNIORS

The Selma Bantams blanked the Kenly Juniors, 4 to 0, here Tuesday behind fine pitching by Parrish, Bantam ace.
Parrish struck out 15 and gave only one hit, an infield lick. The locals got but six hits but mixed their blows well with five Kenly errors.
Any juvenile team desiring games with the Bantams are asked to communicate with Manager Billy Aycock of the locals.
