

COURT NEWS

The following cases were disposed of in Johnston County recorder's court last week:

Percy Pool, 38, was found not guilty of allowing a drunk to operate his motor vehicle.

L. R. Weeks, 28, Benson, pleaded guilty to operating a car while intoxicated. Prayer for judgment was continued upon payment of $50 and costs. The defendant's driving license is to be surrendered for twelve months.

J. E. Massengill, 30, was found guilty of abandonment and non-support of his wife and child. He was taxed with the costs and given a 6 month prison sentence suspended on condition that he pay $25 a month for support of his wife and child.

Felton Barefoot, 35, was found guilty of larceny of a suit of clothes and shirt, $25 value. He was sent to the roads for 90 days.

Doris McLamb, 30, was acquitted on a charge of violating the prohibition laws.

John Bennett, 27, was convicted of assault on female. Prayer for judgment was continued on payment of costs.

Reggie Honeycutt, 29, found guilty with deadly weapon, was fined $25, taxed with the costs, and drew a six-month road term suspended on condition that the defendant refrain from violating any criminal law for a two-year period.

Elmon Beasley, 16, was found guilty of possession and transportation of five pints of alcoholic whisky. He was taxed with the costs and given a 30-day jail sentence suspended with the condition that he refrain from violating the prohibition laws for the next two years.

Son Collins, 35, colored, was found not guilty of violating the prohibition law. In the same case, Van Johnson, 17, colored, pleaded guilty to possession of two gallons of illegal whisky and drew six months on the roads.

Daniel P. Johnson, 35, and wife, Dorothy Johnson, 33, were in court having each been indicted for assault. Verdicts of not guilty were entered in both cases, the prosecutions were adjudged frivolous and malicious and not in good faith, and the couple was taxed with the costs.

Mrs. Cinda Edwards, 45, was found not guilty of assault with deadly weapon.

Mrs. Leonard Anderson, 41, was found guilty of being publicly drunk and disorderly. A prayer for judgment was continued upon payment of costs.

Brotchie Flowers, Wilson, Rt. 2, was given a hearing on a forgery charge and bound over to superior court. Bond was fixed at $300.

Hayes Sasser, 29, Clayton, Rt. 2, was found guilty of operating a car while intoxicated. Prayer for judgment was continued upon payment of $50 and costs. His driving license is to be surrendered 12 months.

The court failed to find probable cause against Mrs. C. E. Denning, 45, charged with housebreaking and larceny and the defendant was dismissed.

Russel Ferrell, 32, colored, was found guilty of trespass and resisting and interfering with an officer in discharge of his duty. On charge of trespass, he drew 30 days in jail. On the charge of resisting an officer, he got 60 days, the latter sentence to run concurrently with the first sentence.

Clinton Foster, 23, and Zeb Hales, 32, were found guilty of being drunk and disorderly and were also convicted of breaking out plate glass window of J. W. Ellis' store in Kenly. Each defendant was given 30 days on roads, suspended on payment of costs. They took an appeal to superior court.

Cleveland Township Farmer Dies Suddenly

Herbert E. Weeks, a prominent farmer of the Cleveland township section of Johnston county, died suddenly Sunday afternoon at his home near the Cleveland school. He apparently had been in the best of health, so his death came as a shock to his many friends.

The funeral was held at Oakland Presbyterian church Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock, conducted by the pastor, the Rev. W. C. Neill, assisted by the Rev. A. C. McCall, pastor of Pisgah Baptist church. Interment took place in the Oakland church cemetery.

He is survived by his wife, Lula Coats Weeks, and eight children: Ralph Weeks of Smithfield; Herbert A. Weeks, Vann Weeks, and Jeff Weeks of Washington, D. C.; Miss Marie Janice and Charlie Weeks of the homeplace. His father, F. M. Weeks of Clayton, Route 1, also survives.

One of the reservists was bearing up rather nobly under a particularly weary R. O. T. C. drill when he very inadvertently passed by the Lieutenant without saluting.

"Say, Buddy," said the Lieutenant with characteristic sweetness, "do you see the uniform I'm wearing?"

"Yeh," said the reservist, looking enviously at the Lieutenant's almost immaculate uniform, "look at the darn thing they gave me."

Beer Clean-Up Drive Closes 227 Stores

Raleigh, Sept. 8.—The beer industry's "clean up or close up" campaign in North Carolina resulted in the elimination of 227 undesirable retail outlets during the three-year period ended September 1, 1942.

Edgar H. Bain of Goldsboro, state director of the North Carolina Committee of the Brewing Industry Foundation today issued a summary of the committee's activities for this period. It disclosed that 227 objectionable outlets were eliminated—165 by revocation, 60 by refusal to grant renewals and two by surrender—in ylvania, Vance, Warren, Wake, Wilkes, Wilson, Watauga and Yadkin.

54 counties: Alamance, Ashe, Burke, Beaufort, Buncombe, Brunswick, Craven, Columbus, Catawba, Clay, Cumberland, Caldwell, Cherokee, Cleveland, Cabarrus, Duplin, Davie, Edgecombe, Forsyth, Guilford, Gaston, Graham, Haywood, Henderson, Iredell, Johnston, Lenoir, Harnett, Mecklenburg, Montgomery, Madison, Martin, New Hanover, Onslow, Rowan, Robeson, Randolph, Richmond, Rockingham, Rutherford, Pasquotank, Pitt, Swain, Stanley, Surry, Trans-

23 outlets were placed on probation in 11 counties: Bladen, Carteret, Columbus, Johnston, Lenoir, Rutherford, Swain, Transylvania, Wake, Wilson and Wayne.

There have been 3,434 investigations by field representatives of retail outlets in 96 counties.

326 outlets in 69 counties warned to correct unsatisfactory conditions or face more drastic action by the committee. In most instances, the outlets "cleaned up"; in others, the committee filed revocation proceedings against them, Bain announced.
