

The photographer was unable to snap the object of amusement of the women here but it must have been very funny. The happy trio are left to right: GLEAMER RUSHING, KATE SWARINGEN, and SADIE LOWDER all spooler operators in Plant #2, Albemarle.

AUTRY FARRAR, employed at Textured Yarn Plant on June 15, 1959, enjoys his work at A & E which is evident with six years service as janitor on the 1st shift. Autry lives at 502 East Catawba Avenue in Mt. Holly with his wife, HILDA, and son, RICKEY. A member of Bethel Baptist Church of Mt. Holly, Autry enjoys his hobbies which are baseball and watching television.

WILLIAM McLEAN, CLARENCE "Pete" CANNON, JERRY HOYLE and TURNER BENGÉ are employed as laborers at the Nelson Plant.

William lives in the Old Collier's community. He has two children. His hobbies are fishing and coon hunting.

Pete, one of the Nelson's best known employees, has been working here thirty years. He lives on Lenoir, Rt. 2. He has three children.

Jerry has three boys. He lives on Granite Falls, Rt. 2, and attends Pleasant Hill Baptist Church. Hunting and fishing are his favorite sports.

Turner has eleven children. He lives on Lenoir, Rt. 3, and is a member of Faith Baptist Church.

ROY R. BEATTY works in the Card room at Adrian as a slubber tender. He and his wife, Hazel have five children. His hobby is hunting and fishing.

MR. EDWARD F. WILKINSON (left) is proud of his service record with the American & Efirid Mills, Inc. He is employed at the Rush Plant as a twister tender on the first shift. Ed is a real pro, having held this same job for the past 18 years.

Mr. Wilkinson and wife, Mrs. Mabel Wilkinson, live on Route 1, Mount Holly. She is employed at the North Belmont School lunch room. They attend Ebenezer Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson have one daughter, Mrs. Peggy Hayes, who is also employed at the Rush Plant as a winder tender on the second shift. She and her husband, Mr. Jack Hayes, live at Stanley, N. C. They have two children, Michael, nine years of age, and Pamela, seven.

Mr. Wilkinson said he had no special hobbies but just enjoyed watching television.