Carelessness During Prosperity.

Have you ever noticed that a great number of people are more careless and wicked when they are having a life easy, when they are making a good salary, when they have plenty of everything, when their whole You can hear a man curse and swear family has good health? It is true. more when every thing is prosperous than he does when one of his family is sick or some other misfortune overtakes him. He will forget God when everything is going along smoothly. Let him yet in a close place and he begins to beg God's tender and loving care. Let us not forget to praise and thank God for the good things He has permitted us to have. Let us not forget to put Him first at all times during prosperity and misfortune.

Which is the Hope of a Nation?
There goes the boy with shaggy hair,
With tattered clothes that are so rare,

With dirty face, but merry eyes;
Some folks say he's bound to rise.

But, hark! you reader, hear his song,

Can't you see that folks are wrong?
He sings these words, 'I'm satisfied,

Just so, with bread I am supplied."

But turn your face another way
And listen to another's say.
This boy is full of grace and care
This boy is oh so very rare!

His voice peals out a diff'rent tune,
His hopes are far above the moon;
He sings this song so full and round;
"By faith I'll climb to higher ground."
